CLAIM BIG VOTE FOR TREATY

Eleventh Hour Poll of Senate Shows Pact Will Pass, Claim

OPPONENTS MAKING
LAST HOUR ATTACK

Hoover Declares Naval Alliance Will Save $300,000,000 Yearly

(United Press Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, March 23.—An eleventh hour poll of the senate on the four-power treaty, taken today by administration senators, showed it will be ratified tomorrow with the Brandegee reservation attached by a vote of at least 69 to 27.

The poll disclosed the fact that the danger of an upset due to the desire of some Republican senators to eliminate the Brandegee reservation is past. Fewer than a dozen Republicans would vote for a motion to strike out the Brandegee proposal. The last day of the treaty debate was opened today with a speech by Senator Colt, Rhode Island. Colt said old familiar arguments made against this treaty, that the United States should not entangle itself in foreign quarrels, had been answered for all time by the fact that from now on every foreign quarrel touches intimately the interests and well-being of the United States.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—A mass meeting of 11,000 people held in the civic auditorium here last night, urged passage of the four-power Pacific treaty.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 23.—"Unless the treaty is ratified the naval program in a year will run up another ten billion dollars," declared Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, in endorsing a public mass meeting in favor of ratification of the Washington treaties, held in San Francisco.

"If the senate passed the treaty the nation can reduce its naval bill $300,000,000 per year." Hoover was resting at his home here today, devoting most of his time to his two children. Tomorrow he will speak at a dinner given by the San Francisco chamber of commerce and then to return to Washington via Salt Lake and Denver.

AFTER WEDDED, CLAIM

Desertion and non-support were alleged as grounds for complaint by Rosa F. Griffith, of Huntington Beach, who filed suit in the superior court today for divorce from Albert F. Griffith.

The Griffiths were married at Aztec, New Mexico, August 14, 1907. They have no children. The wife claims to have been deserted April 6, 1913. She is represented in the suit by Attorney James L. Hansen.

New Ulster-Sinn Fein War Near as Armies Mass Along Tyrone Border

BELFAST, March 23.—A clause fixing the death penalty for offenses connected with bombing outrages, such as have shocked Belfast recently, was incorporated in the restoration of order bill by the Ulster parliament this afternoon. Two constables were attacked and killed in the city today.

(United Press Leased Wire)
ON THE ULSTER FRONT, Caledon, County Tyrone, March 23.—Snipers' rifles were barking defiance across the Tyrone border early today. Along the Monghan frontier, Ulster volunteers and Irish Republican troops are facing each other across a narrow "no man's land."

Farm houses are being fortified. Shallow entrenchments have been thrown up. Both sides are ready for the threatened civil war.

The trouble along the Ulster border is the climax of a series of raids into Ulster by Sinn Fein extremists. Ulster constabulary has been rushed to protect the Tyrone frontier and Irish Republican army troops, apparently striving to create trouble and upset the establishment of the free state, have been re-inforced. The situation assumes the

23 Sailors Perish as British Sub Is Rammed by Destroyer

LONDON, March 23.—The British submarine H-42 sank in the Mediterranean off Gibraltar following a collision with a destroyer today, according to an official announcement from the admiralty.

An Exchange telegram message said all hands had been lost.

The H-42 carried a crew of 20 men and three officers. The admiralty report said that the H-42 was rammed by H. M. S. Versatile.

"It is feared the submarine was totally lost, with all hands," the communique said.

The accident occurred off Europa Point in 500 fathoms of water.

FRENCH SOLON HITS HUGHES' VIEW ON DEBT

Declares United States Cannot Legally Claim Payments For Upkeep of Forces on Rhine.

PARIS, March 23.—"The United States cannot legally claim participation in a priority agreement for payment of Rhine occupation costs," the senate finance committee's report, presented to the French senate today by Senator Berenger, states.

"The United States," the report said, "can only address itself to the 'amicable solidarity' of the allies."

Senator Berenger announced that the reparations commission has decided Germany must pay 18,000,000 gold marks by April 15 and 50,000,000 gold marks each month thereafter until November. In November and December they must pay sixty million marks each month.

A total of 435,000,000 gold marks in cash is required before the end of the year.

STATE Y CHIEF HERE TO TALK OVER PLANS

Harry Hill, state secretary of the C. M. C. A., was in Santa Ana this afternoon visiting with men prominent in the work, and viewing sites that have been suggested for the project should be undertaken.

Hill familiarized himself with the site locations so that he might more clearly understand discussions that may be made tonight.

The Washington school location is the most prominently mentioned of the sites that have been submitted to the committee, composed of Col. S. H. Hingley, A. J. Crookshank, E. B. Sprague, J. A. Cranston and Charles H. Chapman, it is said. It is expected that the committee tonight will disclose the location of the various sites that have been offered.

It was said today by a prominent Y. M. C. A. worker that Washington school offered ground sufficient for a building and outside court for athletic activities.

Women interested in the work are invited to be present this evening.

SOLONS IN WARM ROW IN FINAL DEBATE OVER BONUS BILL

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The soldier bonus bill will pass the house tonight by a majority of at least 3 to 1. This was the consensus of opinion in the house late today as the debate dragged on. Scores of members are hopping up and delivering one and two minute speeches on the measure, with the right to insert a much longer speech in the Congressional Record for home consumption. No unexpected fight against the bill has developed.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The soldier bonus bill was taken up for passage by the house today.

The special gag rule enabling its backers to put it through without alteration was called up in the house shortly after it convened at 11 o'clock and the semblance of a fight was started.

The house overwhelmingly adopted the rule permitting the bonus bill to come up immediately under "suspension of the rules."

The roll call vote stood 276 to 126. Representative Campbell, taking cognizance of statements that the bill constituted "vote buying," said heatedly:

"Any newspaper or person who makes such a charge doesn't know these soldiers."

Amid cries of "rot," Campbell charged the Democrats with sending soldiers unprepared and unequipped into war.

Representative Upshaw, crippled Georgian, Democrat, hobbled down the aisle.

"We sent enough to win the war," he yelled.

"This measure," said Representative Burton, Ohio, "badly manifests a lucky, go-easy disposition to add to the weight of expenditures, which are already overwhelming. Expenditures for the future, whether they be postponed one year or for 20 years, threaten to bind industry hand and foot."

"We made the mistake in failing to conscript everybody doing war work," Representative Fess, Ohio, said, "but having failed to do this and then meeting the claims of contractors, for war work, the claim of the soldier for additional compensation is justified."

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The treasury faces a shortage this year of approximately $200,000,000 because income tax payments of March 15 have fallen considerably below previous estimates, it was stated officially at the department today, as the house prepared to increase the bonus bill.

P. E. TO SELECT STREETS HERE ON MONDAY

There will be no conflict between the Santa Ana city council and the Pacific Electric Railway company over the selection of the four streets over which busses will be operated by the company.

That became known here today when D. W. Pontius, vice president of the Pacific Electric, stated to The Register that O. A. Smith, passenger traffic manager, would come to Santa Ana next Monday to confer with councilmen here regarding the routing of the busses and the selection of the two north and south streets and the two east and west streets involved in the franchise.

Pontius said that he had received the notice from the city council that unless the company designate the thoroughfares by Monday night the board itself would do so and said his company would act accordingly.

"Mr. Smith, who is in charge of our operations in Santa Ana, is at present busy with work with the railroad commission," Pontius declared. "As soon as he is able, he will come to Santa Ana and go over the situation with the council."

"When the board meets next Monday night Mr. Smith will probably be able to name the streets over which we will operate our busses."

"We have no desire to delay proceedings and you may rest assured that we will get our affairs in order just as soon as it is possible." Smith today notified City Clerk E. L. Vagely that he would be here next Monday for a conference with local officials.

Bare Denby Threat to Cut Navy In Congress Hearing

By LAURENCE M. BENEDICT
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Secretary Denby and other high naval authorities have threatened to cut the navy to twelve battleships, six less than the number allowed the United States under the 5-5-3 ratio of the arms conference in case congress passes the bill reducing the navy enlisted personnel to 65,000 men, it was learned today.

In secret hearings on the naval appropriations bill in the house, Denby and his naval experts repeatedly declared that if the proposed reduction in man power is put through congress, the navy department has decided that the best way to meet the slash would be to pull six of the country's capital ships out of active commission.

Such a course would leave the United States with only two more battleships than the number allotted to Japan at the arms conference and only one more than half the number allowed Great Britain.

ARBUCKLE LAWYERS PLAN NEW DEFENSE IN SLAYING TRIAL

(United Press Leased Wire)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—Hints that an entirely new line of defense may be offered for Fatty Arbuckle in his third trial on charges of having taken Virginia Rappe's life, were dropped by Arbuckle's attorneys today.

If such a plan is followed, it was stated, the name of a prominent motion picture producer and close friend of Miss Rappe may be brought into the case and a long story of Miss Rappe's life may be told.

American Vessel Off French Port Calls for Help

PARIS, March 23.—The American freighter West Caruth is sinking seventeen miles from Cherbourg. S. O. S. signals have been received.

NEW YORK, March 23.—An S. O. S. call from the West Caruth, seventeen miles from Cherbourg was relayed from the liner Kront, 1,000 miles out from here, and announced by the New York radio station of the Independent Wireless company.

The West Caruth is listed as a United States shipping board freighter.

DODGES COURT HERE BY MAKING PAYMENTS

James Green again came in and went out of Justice J. B. Cox's court today, while the charge of non-support, brought against him by his wife, Flora Green, progressed no nearer a settlement than on his several previous appearances.

It appearing that Green is now making regular payments toward the support of his wife, the case was continued on stipulation of Deputy District Attorney D. G. Wootlin and Defense Counsel Morris Cain to June 8 at 2 p. m. It was understood that if the support continues the charge against Green will be dismissed. The defendant was released on his own recognizance.

Shall Santa Ana Have a Y. M. C. A. Building?

A public meeting of exceptional importance is that to be held at the First Presbyterian church tonight at 7:30, to get the sentiment of the community on the question—

Shall Santa Ana proceed at this time to raise a building fund for the Y. M. C. A.?

To get an intelligent and correct answer to this question is the purpose of tonight's meeting.

Of course the meeting is called by those who believe that NOW is a propitious time to undertake a campaign for a Y. M. C. A. building fund; but those who may hold opposite views are not only expected, but are especially invited to be present and express their opinions and judgments.

The Register believes that Santa Ana not only CAN afford to provide a home for the Y. M. C. A., but that it CANNOT AFFORD NOT TO DO SO. We believe a modern, well-equipped Y. M. C. A. building will prove to be a paying community investment in a merely material way—in dollars and cents—and that its value as a moral community asset is inestimable.

But neither The Register nor the Y. M. C. A. organization, nor any of those who are seeking to get the building fund movement under way has any intention or desire to force the enterprise upon a reluctant or unwilling community.

Tonight's meeting is called for the purpose of feeling the public pulse, and to give everybody a hearing.

To the best of our knowledge and belief, Santa Ana is the only town in Southern California of 20,000 or more population that hasn't a fine Y. M. C. A. building. Are we failing in our duty to our boys and young men in this respect?

Let's meet at the First Presbyterian Church tonight and face and answer this question fairly and squarely.

S. A. TIRE MAN'S LIFE SNUFFED OUT AS TRAIN RAMS AUTO

Two automobile accidents in the Long Beach-San Pedro district had today claimed the life of one Orange County citizen, while another was in a harbor hospital severely injured. Two other persons were injured—one probably fatally, in the two wrecks.

Walter E. Guy, 33, Santa Ana business man, was instantly killed at the Pacific Electric crossing in East Long Beach early today when his Ford coupe collided with a Newport-bound freight train. In the same accident, Mrs. Millicent Deming, 30, of San Pedro, received injuries which were expected hourly to result in her death. She was being treated at the Seaside hospital, Long Beach, Mrs. Deming has two children.

Mrs. G. H. McNally, 35, of Balboa, was pinned under a car which overturned at the intersection of Palos Verde and Fourteenth streets, San Pedro, yesterday. She sustained a fractured jaw and was taken to the Hillside hospital, San Pedro. Her condition was not regarded as serious.

Guy, who was proprietor of a wholesale tire business on West Fourth street near the Richelieu hotel, and who resided at St. Ann's Inn, was traveling east on Anaheim road at the intersection of Obispo street, Long Beach, at 2:30 a. m., evidently bound for Santa Ana.

Crew Tolls of Crash
According to Pacific Electric Conductor H. C. Cruman and Motorman A. B. Weyant, who were in charge of the freight-train, the train was already on the crossing when the crash came. The trainmen also asserted that the electric crossing signal was in operation. The crossing, however, is said to afford poor opportunities for observation by approaching motorists.

Guy's body was badly mangled and death was instant. Mrs. Deming received terrible injuries and her recovery was said to be impossible. The car was completely demolished. A Long Beach police surgeon and a physician gave the woman emergency treatment and she was rushed to the hospital. Guy's body was taken to the undertaking establishment of Holton and Son, in Long Beach, where an inquest was scheduled to be held this afternoon.

Mrs. Deming, Guy's companion, had lived in San Pedro but a short time. She came there recently from Montana.

Guy had made his home at St. Ann's Inn for about two months, formerly residing at the Bradley apartments, on North Broadway. He had been in business here for some time, being formerly a partner of Sam Hill in the wholesale tire business at 417 North Broadway, but recently assuming full ownership and moving to West Fourth.

So far as has been learned today he had no relatives in Santa Ana. A brother resides in Albuquerque, New Mexico, it was understood, and other relatives are said to live in San Diego.

In the accident at San Pedro Mrs. McNally was at first thought to have received a basal fracture of the skull and internal injuries, but an X-ray examination, made yesterday, revealed that such was not the case. J. O. Phillips, 21, a sailor attached to the fleet in San Pedro harbor, was slightly bruised in the accident. He was driving the car, which had brought the woman's husband, a longshoreman, to San Pedro, and was just starting for Balboa to take Mrs. McNally home, when it overturned.

MAN THINKS CADILLAC LURKS IN OIL DEPOT; COSTS HIM $50 FINE

When F. O. Wakeley, 52, Los Angeles oil man, parked his car, so the police allege, cross-wise in the center of South Main street and walked unsteadily to the Metcalf filling station at the corner of Second street where he asked to buy a Cadillac, he got a summons to police headquarters instead.

Officers Elliott, Moncrief and Jaynes took Wakeley and his companion, A. P. Save, 60, also of Los Angeles, in tow. Today they faced City Recorder W. F. Heathman, who fined Wakeley $50 and levied a $10 fine from Save. Both fines were paid.

Wakeley's alleged idea that the filling station had a Cadillac lurking somewhere about the premises was an interesting diversion to the traffic along that street yesterday.

NAB THEFT SUSPECT

LOS ANGELES, March 23.—James Flynn, wanted in El Paso, Texas, for allegedly relieving a Japanese of a large sum of money, was arrested at the Southern Pacific depot today on telegraphic warrants.

10,000 Lumber Mill and Logging Men Quit as Wage Cut Protest

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23. Three thousand lumber mill and logging woods workers in Southern Oregon and Northern California are locked out or striking, according to a statement given out here today by the International Union of Timber workers.

Logging and milling operations at Dorris, Ween, Klamath Falls and McCloud are affected, according to the statement.

The union charged that the companies attempted to cut wages ten per cent and to institute a ten-hour working day.

DAUGHTER OF MEAT BARON PASSES AWAY

Short Illness Proves Fatal To Gwendolyn Armour; Ten Doctors Fight To Save Life.
CHICAGO, March 23.—Gwendolyn Armour, six year old daughter of Philip D. Armour, died early today at the family mansion on Lake Shore drive. Ten doctors and a corps of nurses fought all night to save the life of the heir to the Armour millions.

The girl died of peritonitis after an illness of several days. The father is the grandson of the founder of Armour and company.

McFADDEN HOME SITE PLANS TO BE OUTLINED

With the first payment made on eight lots embracing the site of the old home place of the late James McFadden made by a group of ten local men, members of the group will go before the Orange County Historical society at its next meeting and present plans for conserving the site as an historical feature for Santa Ana. The men who have each contributed a like amount to the fund for the purchase of the property are Dr. C. D. Ball, John Cribben, C. S. Crookshank, A. J. Crookshank, Charles F. Heil, A. J. McFadden, J. P. Baumgartner, E. M. Smiley, H. J. Forgy, A. J. Crookshank and S. H. Finley.

The men have bought the property purely for its preservation as a historical feature for the city. It is declared the group would like to see the city take charge of the land and develop a park, the historical society to assume responsibility for maintenance of the house.

Action of the group has made this possible. It is understood that Mrs. James McFadden will maintain the grounds for a year, at least.

SEEKS WILL PROBATE

Petition of Carl O. Morberg, of Los Angeles, to probate the will of his mother, Jenny Morberg, who died in Los Angeles March 2, was filed today in the superior court. The will was brought to this county because the estate, valued at $3000, consists of real estate and an interest in an oil lease at Seal Beach, together with 500 shares of oil stock.

"30" BULLETINS

Preliminary hearing of Elias Seblila, local Mexican, charged with falling to render aid following an automobile accident at Fourth and French streets, several days ago, was today set for April 11 at 10 a. m. by Justice J. B. Cox.

Daugherty Warns Both Factions In Strike of Plan to Protect Public

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The government will protect the public against any violence that might follow a walkout of coal miners April 1, Attorney General Daugherty warned today.

"I am not taking sides in this matter, but I wish to make it clear the public will be protected," he said.

Daugherty conferred with President Harding and Secretary of Labor Davis, it was learned today. The chief subject of discussion, it was understood, was the possibility of a public appeal by the president to the miners and operators to get together in a national conference and discuss their differences before any walkout.

The government officials maintain the attitude that, fuel being indispensable to transportation, the people are entitled to protection just as they would be entitled against a railroad tieup. The element of interstate commerce among public utilities also

MINERS ON VERGE OF BIG ROW

Illinois Miners' Union Head Fights Lewis' Early Call for Walkout

PLAN FOR SEPARATE STATE AGREEMENTS

Survey Shows Nation Has Sufficient Coal to Last Many Weeks

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 23.—The strike vote of 500,000 coal miners ordered to suspend work April 1 favored the walk-out 94.6 to 5.4 per cent, William E. Green, secretary-treasurer of the miners union announced late today. The count of the ballots is now completed he said.

(United Press Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, March 23.—Appointment by President Harding of a special commission to investigate the present mining dispute was asked in a resolution introduced in the house today by Representative Bland, Indiana.

CLEVELAND, O., March 23.—A possible serious break in the ranks of the United Mine workers today threatened to disrupt the organization as the members of the mine policy committee gathered here for opening sessions tomorrow. The committee of 116 members was called to formulate plans for conducting the mine tie up, scheduled to start at midnight March 31.

Possibility of a split was seen by union leaders in the threat of Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois district that he and his followers would insist upon single state wage negotiations with operators, strongly opposed by international officers of the miners.

Nevertheless Farrington's proposed stand is not regarded lightly because of the large following he controls, the Illinois district being the largest in the union.

UNION HEADQUARTERS SEES CHANCE TO AVERT STRIKE

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 23.—Separate state wage agreements between mine owners and miners may yet avert the nation-wide coal strike called for April 1, it was learned today at United Mine workers headquarters here.

Whether the strike actually materializes depends now upon the power international officers of the union are able to exercise over their subordinates at a meeting of the policy committee in Cleveland tomorrow.

SURVEY SHOW LARGE SUPPLY OF COAL AVAILABLE

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The nation has sufficient bituminous coal to last several weeks in the event of a nation-wide coal tieup, a survey of the department of labor revealed today.

The anthracite supply, which was estimated at about 11,000,000 tons would last four weeks.

The bituminous supply was given as between 65,000,000 and 75,000,000 tons.

LEWIS CONFIDENT OF HELP FROM RAILROADS

NEW YORK, March 23.—Confidence that the railroad workers of the United States would join in a sympathetic strike if the anthracite miners suspend operations April 1 was expressed today by John L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers.

The rules of the railroad brotherhoods provide against sympathetic strikes, it is said.

"The railroaders," Lewis said, "are a constant source of help to the miners and we feel we can count upon their help as well as that of the American Federation of Labor and similar organizations."

"As yet we have made no request for assistance."

City and County

Work was in progress today on the foundation for the new garage building to be erected by the May Motor company at the southeast corner of Second and Sycamore streets. The structure will be one story, with a foundation of sufficient strength to carry one or two additional stories, should these be deemed advisable later. The plans provide for a modern garage building.

Supervisors of Orange county and editors of all county newspapers have been invited to be the guests of the Newport Harbor yacht club at a dinner next Saturday night at the clubhouse, Joseph A. Beck, harbor master, announced today. The Newport Harbor yacht club, through Beck, has sent the invitations and a large gathering is expected.

Friends of Mrs. L. A. Newman, 1315 East Third street, were saddened today to learn of the death of her mother, Mrs. E. J. Myers, in Edinburg, Kans., March 13. Mrs. Myers passed the winter here.

Miss Dora Winetree, 1731 West Fourth street, who completed her course of training in nursing at Paradise Valley sanitarium, near San Diego, and who took the state board examination in February, has received notice that she has passed successfully and is now a registered nurse.

The meeting of Masons, scheduled for next Saturday night, for discussion of plans for purchasing a site and erection of a new Masonic temple, has been postponed indefinitely, it was announced today by John A. Harvey, chairman of the general committee that has been engaged for several weeks in developing and discussing plans for the project.

Masons of Orange county today were anticipating the visit here next Monday of Dr. Samuel E. Burke, worshipful grand master. Fullerton lodge will entertain Masons of the county on that evening with a 6:30 o'clock dinner preceding the meeting. The after-dinner program at Fullerton will include instrumental music by Clarence Gustlin; vocal selections by Robert Brown, both of Santa Ana; "Harry Lauder Capers" by William Robinson, of Fullerton, and a reading and solo by Dick Guberson, of Dallas, Texas.

Ivan Harper and Miss Eleanor Thatcher will compete in the Shakespearean festival at Los Angeles April 21, as a result of their victories in the try-outs last evening at the high school here. High school orators from the entire Southern will compete at that time, and the winners will enter the competition at Berkeley later, to decide the state title.

According to the weekly bulletin of the department of petroleum and gas of the state mining bureau, four wells started drilling for oil during the week ending March 13. Three of the wells at Huntington Beach were by the Amalgamated, the Pacific Petroleum and the Argonaut, and one at Richfield by the Union. The General Petroleum abandoned one well at Richfield.

With her condition very low, it was a question today whether Helen Jones, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Jones, 610 West Fourth street, would live.

The physicians in charge held hope for the little girl's recovery.

Helen was frightfully burned Monday afternoon when the flames from a bonfire which she had lighted in the garage at the rear of her house, caught her on fire.

FINAL PLAY DETAILS COMPLETED TONIGHT

Responding to the call of Miss Hazel Bemis, an important meeting of committee heads of the Community Players' organization will be held at the high school at 6:30 tonight.

Miss Bemis is head of the production committee and has called the meeting for the purpose of arranging the final details of color and lighting for the production of the Clyde Fitch comedy, "The Truth," to be given by local talent Thursday and Friday, March 30 and 31, at the high school auditorium.

Miss Bertha M. Stein of the high school faculty, heads the costume committee; Mrs. Marshall Harolds, the scenery committee; Frances Selway, stage management; and Earl Matthews, the lighting effects.

With these chairman in consultation the different sets, costumes and lighting will all be brought into complete harmony of color scheme, in readiness for the dress rehearsal to be held Wednesday night of next week.

DEMAND $16,000 DAMAGES FROM ACCUSED TRIO

Civil complications developed today from the criminal charge against Walter Brown, E. A. Worden and Paul Dressell, when the Sunrise Consolidated Oil company, whose well near El Toro the three men are accused of looting, filed suit against them in the superior court here for $16,010 damages.

The civil action goes also into the question of ownership of the oil well site, an issue upon which the criminal charge is said to hinge. The two court moves are therefore regarded as closely interwoven.

Brown, Worden and Dressell were recently arrested on a grand larceny charge at Portland after they had hired John Osterman, E. Toro rancher, and two of his employees, to haul an oil drill and other equipment from the well to El Toro, whence it was shipped to Salem, Oregon.

Show Sale Bill
When arrested they exhibited a bill of sale for the property, which was valued at $7,500.

This bill of sale was made out by Gus Holmes, of South Pasadena, who was later arrested at Visalia while attending his wife's funeral. Holmes had a bill of sale from J. W. O'Day, former Trabuco silver miner. O'Day was arrested and made the declaration that he owned the property on which the well is located, and under an agreement regarding drilling provisions which were not observed, the missing equipment belonged to him.

Claim Reiterated
This claim is reiterated in the civil action for damages, filed today. The plaintiff oil company alleges that Brown, Dressell and Worden entered upon "its property" January 7, and removed the equipment from the uncompleted well, which had been drilled to a depth of 350 feet.

It alleges that this act damaged the company to the extent of $8,960. Its well was damaged to the amount of $4,550 and it sustained $2,000 additional damage, the complaint asserts. Another $500 is asked to cover the alleged expense of trailing the missing equipment.

Two of the defendants, Brown and Worden, are at present at liberty here under $500 bail each while awaiting a preliminary hearing on the grand larceny charge. Dressell is understood to be in the North.

BORAH CHARGES STRS JAPAN TO ACTION

TOKIO, March 23.—Fullest investigation of charges that secret agreements exist under cover of the four-power Pacific treaty is eagerly desired by Japan, it was stated on high authority in the foreign office today.

The statement followed reports of charges made in the United States senate by Senator Borah, which many officials in Japan said they believe should be thoroughly investigated and disproved to prevent any element of distrust from developing among the treaty signers at the outbreak.

"Japan has no secret agreements with any nation," declared a high official, "and we accept and trust completely the denials of the United States and Great Britain."

"Nevertheless, attempts to arouse distrust at this time are most dangerous, and it is therefore to be hoped that the United States senate will investigate these charges sufficiently to remove absolutely any chance of skepticism."

SALVATIONISTS' FUND DRIVE TO BE LAUNCHED

Expecting to lay definite plans for a drive to raise approximately $15,000 to apply on the expense of erecting a $25,000 Salvation Army building here and to cover an annual budget, members of a campaign committee were prepared today to meet in the army headquarters on Sycamore street, next to The Register building, at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

The main committee is made up of sub-committees selected from the Lions club, Odd Fellows, Ebell club, Daughters of Veterans, Elks, Silver Cord Lodge of Masons, American Legion, Modern Woodmen of America, Royal Neighbors, Women's Relief Corps and other organizations.

ORANGE REALTY BOARD FORMALLY LAUNCHED

With twenty of the thirty real estate dealers of that city identified as members, organization of the Orange Realty board was completed last night with the election of permanent officers, as follows: Howard Williams, president; E. J. Ball, and W. H. Armstrong, vice presidents; Glenn Coe, secretary, and W. M. Whitney, treasurer.

Everett A. White, of Santa Ana, regional director of the California Real Estate association, assisted in the organization.

"Creation of a board at Orange will work to the interest of the city and place that community in direct touch with men throughout the state and United States who can be of the greatest assistance in directing prospective home owners to that city," said White today. "The contact the board members will have with dealers everywhere will be of inestimable value to the community."

SUB IN COLLISION IN SAN DIEGO BAY

SAN DIEGO, March 23.—The motorship Angel, of the Angel Steamship company, collided with the United States submarine, R-8 here early today when, according to officers of the Angel, the submersible signaled wrong and crossed the bow of the merchant ship.

The submarine struck the Angel below the water line, cutting a hole in her hull.

With her pumps working to capacity the Angel made dock with four feet of water in her forward hold.

CUT COMPENSATION INSURANCE RATES

That the revised compensation insurance rates effective April 1, showing substantial reductions in most classifications, will meet with much favor among prospective builders, was stated here today by Mac O. Robbins, who handles compensation as well as other line of insurance.

The changes in premium charges in building operations will have, it is believed, a favorable reaction in Santa Ana in view of the remarkable strides being made in construction of residences and business structures.

Rates on carpentry work, for dwelling construction, have dropped between 20 and 25 per cent, and for general carpentry work nearly 50 per cent. Brick work shows a decrease of nearly 25 per cent, and general painting about 15 per cent.

Market Report*WALL ST. JOURNAL FINANCIAL REVIEW

NEW YORK, March 23.—With the exception of transactions in a few specialties, the list on the New York Stock exchange today accomplished little.

Progress of soldier bonus legislation and the higher money rate had a depressing effect. Call money renewed at 4 per cent and late borrowers sometimes paid as high as five percent, whereas call money was as low as 3 percent on the outside during the week.

Despite reiterated statements that E. L. Doheny is in Mexico simply on one of his usual inspection trips, traders kept hammering away at Mexican oil stocks.

Rails seemed to feel the effect of the cutting of the Northern Pacific dividend. This was not announced until after the close Wednesday. There was nothing in Southern Pacific's statement of earnings for February to get enthusiastic over.

As a general thing low prices were made just before the close today, although E. R. T. made a new high for the year at that time.

The market closed lower.

Closing prices included:

U. S. Steel, 32 7/8, off 1-8; Crucible, 56 1/4, off 3-8; Bethlehem B, 68 1/4, off 7-8; Mexican Petroleum, 118 1/4, off 7-8; Texas Company 43 1/8; Standard, 103 7/8, up 3-4; Chandler, 72 1/2; U. S. CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE

CHICAGO, March 23.—Grain prices declined sharply on the Chicago Board of Trade today. Wheat fell as a result of weather conditions and lack of foreign demand. Outside buying was indifferent. Corn offerings were liberal and there was only fair local buying. Provisions were steady.

SAN FRANCISCO MARKETS

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—Onions featured the market today when holders asked $7.25 to $7.50 for storage onions, an advance of $1.00 during the week.

Supplies are said to be very light and dealers believe demand will keep pace with heavy arrivals from Australia expected shortly.

Potatoes, however, show a directly opposite condition.

Supplies far exceed the demand, and it was said that fairly good potatoes sold as low as 50c a bag at the potato wharf today.

Peano peas of good quality, were selling from 20 to 35 cents a pound. Sebastopol rhubarb was moving slowly. Asparagus is slightly lower, prices averaging 15 to 20 cents according to quality.

SUPPLIES LIBERAL: Apples, grapefruit, oranges, bananas, lemons, potatoes, sweets, tomatoes, mushrooms, rhubarb, peppers, lettuce.

SUPPLIES LIGHT: Pineapples, good celery, peas, sprouts, beans, pumpkins.

AVIATION FIELD MAY BE PLAN OF C. OF C.

Declaring that the visit here yesterday by the group of men interested in aviation had inspired enthusiasm over the possibilities of aviation and impressed Santa Ana business men with the importance of a landing field for the future, J. C. Metzgar, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, today said that a committee on aviation and landing field would be added to the permanent committees of the organization.

This committee, along with the other standing committees, will be named tomorrow afternoon at a conference between Alex Brownridge, president, and Metzgar.

Charles D. Spicer, former president of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association, said today that Santa Ana should no longer countenance delay in the acquisition of a field. He asserted the belief that as a result of the luncheon here yesterday active steps would be taken at once by the Chamber of Commerce in negotiations for a field.

"The statement of Glenn Martin," Metzgar said, "in his address yesterday that the people would have to provide landing fields for airplanes as they have provided good roads for automobiles impressed me as being the full truth."

"Commercial navigation of the air is coming and it is coming rapidly, and the city that fails to provide in advance for that time is the city that is going to lose out."

Metzgar declares that many of the men who were at the luncheon yesterday expressed themselves as favoring immediate steps to secure a field.

Various plans are being discussed for acquiring a field," Metzgar said. "The most feasible plan at this time seems to be to secure a lease on property suitable and later to interest the government on the point of taking a sublease and establishing a government airport. It is conceded that the better plan would be for some one or a group of men to buy land and hold it until such time as provision might be made for the government or city to buy it."

DRY LEADER PLANS FOR BOOZE CLEANUP

(United Press Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, March 23.—Prohibition Commissioner Haynes today named the heads of the eighteen areas established as a basis for the operation and supervision of the general prohibition agents.

The chiefs selected from the present dry personnel, include:
F. A. Hazeltine, Seattle—Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana.
W. W. Anderson, Los Angeles—California and Nevada.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—A. B. Stroup, assistant to the California prohibition director, has been ordered to leave for Florida and assume charge of prohibition enforcement in that state, it was announced at the prohibition directors office here today.

RAIL CHIEFS DENY
CHARGES OF UNION

(United Press Leased Wire)
CHICAGO, March 23.—Representatives of four large railway systems today argued against the motion of B. M. Jewell, chairman of the railway employees department of the American Federation of Labor, that hearings before the United States railway labor board on wage reductions be remanded.

Jewell presented the motion on the grounds that separate conferences between employers and employees had not been held. Representatives of the roads, however, told the labor board that proper conferences were held.

The following roads were represented in arguments today: D. & R. G. W.; Pacific System of the Southern Pacific; St. Louis and San Francisco, and the Northern Pacific.

OAKDALE PLANTING
REGULATIONS SOUGHT

OAKDALE—March 23.—The city planning commission met and decided to ask the city trustees to require that property owners secure permission for tree planting, pruning or removal of trees, in order more firmly to establish the work of the commission for a "city beautiful."

The commission also recommended to the city trustees that Messrs. Rinehart and Shipman be permitted to remove trees on Poplar avenue for replacement with olive trees to be cared for by the property owners.

OKLAHOMA GOVERNOR
RELEASED ON $5000
BOND IN BANK CASE

OKMULGEE, Okla., March 23.—Governor J. B. A. Robertson of Oklahoma, under indictment charged with accepting a bribe to permit a bank which was near insolvency to operate, was at liberty today under $5,000 bond.

The governor slipped quietly into Okmulgee last night and complied with the requirements for bond.

FEAR FLYING BOAT
LOST ON SEA TRIP

(United Press Leased Wire)
MIAMI, Fla., March 23.—The flying boat, Miss Miami, which left here yesterday for Bimini had not arrived at an early hour, according to reports from that place and another plane has been despatched to search for it.

Instructions were broadcasted from the wireless station at Jupiter to all ships to look out for the missing plane. The craft carried besides the pilot, five passengers said to be Mr. and Mrs. August Bulle and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Smith of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Dixon of Memphis, Tenn.

Six government and privately owned airplanes and a number of fast motor boats here were ordered to sea in an organized search for the missing craft.

MID-WEST TOWNS
SHAKEN BY TREMORS

(United Press Leased Wire)
POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., March 23.—The third earthquake tremor in two days shook Poplar Bluff today.

The shock was of moderate intensity and long duration. Windows were rattled. No damage was reported.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 23.—Portions of six states were slightly rocked by earthquake tremors, according to observations made at St. Louis university.

These states felt the shocks, which occurred last night: Southern Illinois, Southeast Missouri, Southern Indiana, Western Kentucky, Northern Arkansas and Northern Tennessee.

SEEK POISONERS
AS WOMAN DIES.
$675 MISSING

(United Press Leased Wire)
YUBA CITY, Cal., March 23.—Discovery that $675 Mrs. Jennie Williams had in her possession March 14 when she was mysteriously stricken ill, was missing, marked the investigation which authorities started today in the causes of her death.

Belief was expressed that she was a victim of poisoners.

The mystery was deepened when R. H. Williams, her husband, turned over to the sheriff a note which he found pinned to the door of his room last night, reading:

"We have pretty nearly got your wife. If you don't watch out we will get you."

Williams professed entire ignorance of whom the author of the note might be.

Mrs. Williams left her home here on the morning of March 14 and went to Marysville, where she had dental work performed; and also drew $600 from a bank and cashed a check for $75 additional.

Late that night, according to her husband, she staggered into her home, removed her hat and threw herself onto a bed exclaiming:

"I believe they have poisoned me."

She lapsed into unconsciousness immediately and was removed to the Sutter county hospital, where she died yesterday, without regaining consciousness.

MESSIAH MEN'S CLUB
TO NAME DIRECTORS

New directors for the Men's club of the Church of the Messiah will be elected at an important business meeting following the banquet to be held at 6:30 tonight at the parish hall of the church.

In addition to the election of the new directorate, an interesting musical program has been arranged. Charles Brown, J. P. Hatzfeld and S. J. Cornell compose the entertainment committee.

The Patchwork Quilt HAVE YOU A PIECE TO PUT IN IT?

PATCHWORK QUILT
By ELEANOR ELLIOTT
SPRING ATTIRE
Spring and a tracing of delicate green
Against a background of azure sky.
Batiste and organdy—crepe de chine—
Oh, how my fairy fancies fly!
High clouds riding on waves of blue,
Shining sails on a summer sea.
Tulle—satin of brilliant hue—
Oh the lure of their sheen to me!

Sudden mist of a springtime shower.
Bluebirds flashing through drops of rain.
Georgette crepes and soft velvet—
Dream me dreams of my fabrics again!
Happy songs of a budding spring.
Green vines clothing the rugged rocks.
Soft chiffons that flutter and cling—
Oh, how I love you, summer frocks!

Why shouldn't womankind want new clothes with the coming of spring? The great mother of us all, demands all manner of fussy new garments at the first stirring of the winds of March.

Mother Nature, in her insistence for new garments, moves calmly and resistlessly on, consulting the milliners and dressmakers of the universe in regard to colors and styles and choosing with a recklessness denied to mortals, no matter though their gold be that of Croesus himself.

Ruffles of soft green grass, em-broderies of the gayest colored wild flowers, bird wings and agerettes in softest profusion, lovely airy materials of softest sheen and most delicate hues and tints—oh, Mother Nature's spring wardrobe is one to gaze at with awe and a feeling approaching that of envy.

We stood on a hill overlooking Laguna, a few evenings ago, just as Nature drew around her shoulders, the soft chiffon scarf of fog.
Through it, gleamed the sunset colored ruffles of her gown, while the exquisite hand embroidery of wild hyacinths gleamed in the soft light.

The hem of the gown, as it trailed across the little valley lying at the foot of the hill, looked like the wind-ruffled surface of a tiny lake-let, whereon might be seen softly plumaged waterfowl.

Tossed up on the crest of a little hill, was a gay cockade of eucalypti —feathery branches outlined gracefully against the sky.

Oh, Mother Nature wears beautiful clothes in the spring—and her daughters have the love for pretty, frilly things, inborn in them. Why not?

AND THEN just that the Quilt may not be considered too frivolous and worldly minded, and with thoughts dwelling on personal adornment, we offer a beautiful thing written by Wilfred Wilson Gibson and sent in to us by Mrs. S. who included with it, a number of equally lovely things which we will give from time to time.

THE LONELY TREE
A twisted ash, a ragged fir.
A silver birch with leaves astir.
The lone tree on the bare hillside,
Where summer long the shadows sleep.

Tho' I love forests deep and wide,
The lone tree on the bare hillside,
The brave, wind-beaten, lonely tree
Is rooted in the heart of me.

A twisted ash, a silver fir,
A silver birch with leaves astir.

Daughters of Veterans
Eight delegates, with an equal number of alternates, were appointed at the recent meeting of Tent
No. 10, Daughters of Veterans, to represent the tent at the California Nevada convention, to be held at Riverside, May 10.

The delegates named were Mrs.
Parker, Mrs. Helen Lurker, Miss
Adda Cowan, Miss Minnie Cowan, Mrs. Lois Lentz, Mrs. Florence Hawkinson and Mrs. Darnell, while those named as alternates included
Mrs. Helen McPee, Mrs. Edith Ward,
Mrs. Effa Hays, Mrs. Stella Anderson, Mrs. Floss La Bounty, Mrs.
Brown, Mrs. Baird and Mrs. How-ley.

The meeting at which these plans were consummated was a most interesting one held at the usual meeting place, G. A. R. hall. Among other matters of business, it was decided that Tent No. 10 adopt Scott Troop No. 10, and act as official mothers of the organization, helping the lads of the troop in any way possible. Troop No. 10 is headed by Scoutmaster O. H. Hunter.

Plans were completed for the February-March tea which will be held March 30 with those members acting as hostesses, whose birthdays fall in either month. A pleasing program is being arranged and Mrs.
Sadie Welbon will be guest of honor, as the tea will be a farewell to her just before her start on her long journey to Korea to rejoin her husband in the mission field.

Blossoms of Spring Figure In Decorations for Smart Bridge Party

Quantities of spring flowers arranged as an artistic background for the charming spring frocks of Santa Ana's social set, yesterday gave an added charm to a delightful bridge tea with which Mrs. Joseph H. Metzgar, Mrs. J. C. Metzgar and Miss Virginia Metzgar entertained a number of their friends at James's gold room.

An immense basket of blossoms graced the center of the room, while their lovely pastel colorings were repeated in other baskets on tall pedestals, arranged at intervals around the golden walls.

As the guests entered, they were greeted by the three gracious hostesses, who were aided in dispensing hospitality, by Mrs. M. Russell Scott, of Pasadena, a guest at St. Ann's Inn for a few weeks; Mrs. Earl P. Morrow, Mrs. Eldon Fuller, Mrs. Felton Browning and Miss Louise Tubbs.

Following the distribution of the dainty score cards on which the most delicate spring flowers were in evidence, the guests were seated at small tables where bridge formed the afternoon's diversion.

Mrs. W. Hoxie of Tustin was the fortunate holder of high score and received a beautiful, gold encrusted sugar and cream set while a candi-stick in the same lovely ware, bearing a golden candle led to the lot of Mrs. Howard Timmons, holding second score.

Mrs. J. F. Hill held low score but was amply consoled by the gift of a pretty teacup in the same gold encrusted china.

At the conclusion of the games, a delicious tea menu was served to the guests, who included Mesdames P. B.

Current Events

Mrs. Kensil Brown will entertain the members of the Current Events section of Ebell club, at her home, 725 Cypress street, Tuesday afternoon, March 28 at 1:45. Associated with Mrs. Brown in her duties as hostess will be Mrs. E. B. Van Meter and Mrs. A. W. Williams. Any member finding it impossible to be present, is requested to notify the hostesses not later than Monday, by calling 320J.

Prenuptial Affair In Spanish-American Circles

The pretty home of Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Carrillo, 1029 North Parton street, was the scene of a most joyful party given recently for Miss Alexander Rodriguez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Rodriguez, who is soon to become the bride of Henry Felix of Oceanside.

A merry group of young people gathered for the affair, and showered the honoree with an assortment of beautiful and useful gifts for her new home. These included a handsomer beaded, heavy silk negligee in rose color from the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Carrillo as well as articles in silver, linen, cut glass and aluminum.

The evening was spent in merry-making and dancing and Mrs. Carrillo served delicious refreshments as the evening drew to a close with many pleasant little talks from different guests, including the bride-to-be and her father, Mr. O. Rodriguez.

Invited guests included Mrs. Emerson and Miss Thelma Emerson, Garden Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Collins, Miss Geraldine Rodriguez, Miss Matilde Goy, Miss Beatriz Barrios, Miss Josephine Rodriguez, Miss Evangeline Nava, Miss Edith Barrios, Mr. and Mrs. D. Romo, Mr. and Mrs. R. Barrios, Mr. and Mrs. O.
Rodriguez, Messrs. Miguel Valeriano, Julian and Juan Barrios, Gustavus and Juan Carlin, and the guest of honor, Miss Alexandria Rodriguez.

Birthday Celebration Is Shared by Group of Out-of-town Friends

The pleasant home of Charles Kelley, 710 Spurgeon street, was the scene of a gay dinner party last night when Mr. and Mrs. Kelley invited a group of young men from Long Beach to celebrate the birthday in their nephew, George K. Martin.
Nodding jonquils and ferns graced the center of the table where were seated, Mr. Kelley, acting as host, Mr. Martin, the honor guest, and the twelve Long Beach guests, all close friends of the honoree.

The elaborate course dinner ended with the serving of a gaily decorated birthday cake, which, with its array of blazing candles, carried the members of the party back to their childhood days, when a birthday cake was of pre-eminent importance.

The evening was spent at cards, with music and spirited singing to add to the pleasure of the occasion.

Musical Program Given Under C. E. Auspices Proves Success

Congratulations were today being showered on Miss Marian Gerrard, promoter of the Christian Endeavor entertainment at the First Christian church, Tuesday night, and Miss Julietta Hagthorpe, president of the Christian Endeavor, for the success of the concert.

The church was decorated for the occasion with masses of greenery and sprays of peach blossoms all arranged under the artistic direction of Mr. Morris of the Flower Shop.
Girl members of the C. E. arrayed in dainty organdy frocks, acted as ushers and fitted in with the spring-like scene.

The splendidly varied program was carried out smoothly, and the enthusiasm of the audience was an inspiration to each one taking part.

The program opened with an organ solo beautifully rendered by Miss Carrie Seaton, followed by John Parslow in a bird-like whistling number.

Mrs. Edward Hummel, (Hazel Landers Hummel) delighted everyone with her group of ballads of the British Isles, which included "Annie Laurie" and "Oh! Whistle" for Scotland, "Little Irish Girl," "Kerry Dance" and "Irish Lullaby" for Ireland and the English "Oh! John, No."

Mrs. Elmer Worthy's enjoyable piano solo was followed by a pleasing vocal number by Miss Ruth Dowling after which Mrs. Thompson, a delightful addition to Santa Ana's musicians, gave a trombone solo.
"Love Here Is My Heart," a vocal solo by M. R. Gallene, proved equally pleasing and the Hawaiian melodies offered by the Garcia Brothers' string quartette had all the dreamy charm of the faraway isle of the Pacific.

The presence of the Misses Pope and Ruth Dowling, (the latter a daughter of the Rev. Mr. Dowling of Placentia) and Messrs. Cheverton and Webb of the Southern California School of Christianity, gave the audience the pleasure of hearing an excellent quartette in a number of selections which brought the program to a close.

Professor Cheverton of the school, acted as accompanist for the quartette and all five were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Gerrard preceding the entertainment.

Past Matrons

Masonic temple will be the scene of the 1 o'clock luncheon of the Past Matrons' association of Hermosa chapter, O. E. S., to be held Tuesday, March 28, with Mrs. Pease, president of the association, in charge.

Fraternal Brotherhood

"Don't forget the Fraternal Brotherhood tonight, come out and get a D. and C." was the puzzling message sent forth by W. G. Gould today in announcing that the meeting at M.
W. A. hall tonight at 7:30 would be a particularly interesting one. Gould is in charge of the arrangements.

Wedding Anniversary Celebrated Merrily With Party of Congenial Guests

Mrs. Arthur Rimel was a charming hostess Monday evening to a number of friends at her home, 613 South
Garnsey street.

The happy affair was a complete surprise to Mr. Rimel, who looked quite bewildered when each guest offered congratulations, until he realized that the occasion marked their twelfth wedding anniversary.

The early part of the evening was thoroughly enjoyed with several lively games of Rook, Jack and Doris Rimel assisted their mother in entertaining by rendering several piano solos, which were splendidly given.

Mr. Edward Willis gave several humorous readings which were greatly enjoyed. A dainty two-course supper was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. H. C. Slider and Mrs. Lounsberry.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs.
H. C. Slider, Mr. and Mrs. Lounsb-erry, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Marston,
Mr. and Mrs. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs.
Edward Willis of Mankato, Minn.;
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Marston, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rimel, and Misses Hannah Marston, Gladys Willis, Doris Rimel and Master Jack Rimel.

Wedding Announcement Interests Friends

Interested friends in this city have received the announcement that the wedding of Mrs. Polly Smith of 429 1/2
West Fourth street, and Mr. J. C.
Roberts of San Diego would take place Thursday, March 30 at the James' gold room at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Complete simplicity will mark all the arrangements, and the wedding service will be read by the Rev. J.
A. Stevenson, of the First Presbyterian church.

The happy couple plan to make their home in San Diego where they will receive their friends at their home, 1165 Fourth street, after April 15.

Relief Corps

LAW PREJUDICE IS FEATURE IN 'CHIRO' CASE

Opposition to the California law which bars the licensing of chiropractors marked the attitude of many jurors and delayed completion of a jury trial in department 1 of the superior court, where Dr. Vanetta Henderson, woman chiropractor of Fullerton, went on trial, charged with practicing without a license.

Half a score of veniremen were excused before the panel was finally complete. Many of them admitted that their prejudice against the law might influence their verdict. One stated that Dr. Henderson, herself, was "adjusting" a member of the venireman's family so successfully that the latter's prejudices could not be set aside.

Special Prosecutor H. J. Castellaw, representing the state medical board, finally contented himself with accepting those jurors, who, despite admitted prejudice against the law, stated that they believed in law enforcement and would not be influenced by personal feeling.

"It's the same everywhere," commented Griffith Jones, counsel for the defense.

"I've been defending chiropractors up and down the state. In every trial there are about a dozen jurors who say they are opposed to the law against licensing chiropractors."

The jury as finally selected to hear the case of Dr. Henderson was composed of the following:

William F. Lutz, A. A. Bennett, Mrs. Edna E. Stephenson, Eugene Livingston, George E. Cole, Mrs. Eva Abernathy, A. R. Christensen, C. A. Westgate, Conrad J. Mauerhan, Mrs. Catherine Broomell, William M. Belton and Hattie L. Dunn.

WIFE SEEKS DIVORCE FROM S. A. MAN TWICE JAILED IN RUM CASE

The jailing of Arthur Alumbaugh March 18 for four days for alleged drunkenness, and his rearrest on the day of his release, March 22, for the same alleged offense, was the basis for a divorce action which his wife, Dottie Alumbaugh, had on file today in superior court here.

Alumbaugh, who resides in this city, is accused of using personal violence on his wife at various times when, she declares, he was intoxicated. She cites several instances of being struck and beaten by her husband.

They were married October 3, 1920, at San Diego, and have no children. Alumbaugh is said to be employed as a pumper by the El Modena Mutual Water company. On both of the recent occasions when he was arrested, the officers claimed to have found him sitting asleep, in his car in the center of the road.

Attorney Clyde Bishop represents Mrs. Alumbaugh.

RATES ARE REDUCED ON YALE AND HARVARD

LOS ANGELES, March 23.—A reduction in fares and a downward revision of stateroom rates made possible through the steady increase of its passenger business, is announced by the Los Angeles Steamship company as having gone into effect, March 20, on the popular coastwise steamships Yale and Harvard, plying between Los Angeles and San Francisco.

"In accordance with the trend of the times toward lower prices and supported by the evidence of greatly increased interest in water travel both from inland ticket offices, routing through us, and from Pacific coast residents generally," runs the statement from R. V. Crowder, general passenger agent of the company, "the round trip fare including berth and meals on our ships is to be reduced from $35 to $30 on and after March 20, and the return limit increased from 60 to 90 days. A sharp downward revision is also being made in stateroom rates with a radical change in the former system of graduation.

"Proportionate reductions are made in the de luxe and bachelor suites.

"Novel entertainment surprises are being prepared and arrangements made for the still greater travel comfort of our passengers, in our desire to maintain the highest standard of coastwise steamship service available on the Pacific or the Atlantic."

SPORTSMEN RESCUE ELK FROM CANYON

ASHTON, Idaho, March 23.—Twelve local sportsmen spent Sunday rescuing a two-year-old elk cow from the bottom of a deep canyon near here, into which the animal had fallen and was unable to escape. The men journeyed to the canyon on skis and a block and tackle were hauled up on a dog sled.

The sportsmen estimated the animal had been at the bottom of the canyon for over a week, as she was badly emaciated and her hoofs were water soaked and bleeding from the bruises incurred in attempting to scale the canyon's rocky sides.

'FAGS' BERATED VIGOROUSLY IN TALK AT POLY

"Every cigarette contains the equal of three drops of hoptleg whiskey."

"Every cigarette contains one gram of every deadly poison known."

"Cigarettes produce three kinds of men—fools, criminals and failures."

These were the startling assertions made by M. B. Rutherford, of Chicago, self-styled reformed criminal, and speaker for the Anti-Cigarette league, who addressed the high school student body at assembly this morning.

Claiming that they changed him "from a strong, healthy man to a crooked cripple, behind whom the prison gates had closed," Rutherford urged abstinence from cigarettes, which he pronounced a great evil. He berated the manufacturers for their advertisements depicting strong, virile men smoking their products.

Rutherford said he spoke from the experience of a cigarette smoking career which extended over forty years.

W. H. Spurgeon Jr. spoke of the benefits of track athletics and their effect on after life. Coach Ray Adkinson also spoke in an effort to arouse enthusiasm for the tri-county meet scheduled for next Saturday.

Members of the combined glee clubs presented a portion of "The Legend of Nacoochee" Indian opera, which is to be presented tomorrow evening.

JAIL MAN WHO FLED SCENE OF COLLISION

Elias Sebilla, Santa Ana Mexican, was in custody today on a charge of operating an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. His arrest by Police Officer Frank Stewart followed a two-day absence from the city, caused, it was alleged, by Sebilla's fear of just what happened.

The Mexican fled from his old car after a collision at Fourth and French streets with a car driven by L. E. Phillips, of Anaheim. Phillips claimed that Sebilla was driving on the wrong side of the street.

HUSBAND CITED WHEN ALIMONY IS UNPAID

REDWOOD CITY, March 23.—An order to appear before him and show cause why he should not be punished by Superior Judge George H. Buck against Leonard Septimus Reading, a public accountant at San Jose, on the complaint of Reading's former wife, Dora Emily Reading, who charges that he is $1800 in arrears with his alimony. Mrs. Reading was given a divorce in February, 1918, on the ground of cruelty, and Reading was ordered to pay her $125 a month for the support of their five children.

ALLEGED DRUNK FINED

George V. Patton, 45, was fined $10 today by City Recorder W. F. Heathman on a charge of being drunk. Patton was arrested late yesterday by Police Officer O. Moncrief.

FILE PETITION FOR PROBATE OF ESTATE VALUED AT $96,500

A petition for the probate of the will of James L. Porter, on file today in the superior court, lists notes, cash and realty holdings to the value of $96,500, as comprising the estate left by the Santa Ana citizen, who died March 14.

The petition was filed by his widow, Margaret Porter, through Attorneys Scarborough, Forgy and Reinhold.

The real estate consists of an equity in citrus property at the junction of Orange and Olive boulevards. Heirs to the estate, besides the widow, are Mary I. Porter, of Santa Ana, a daughter, James A. Porter, of Orange, Warren Porter, Davenport, Iowa, and Fred L. Porter, Fairfield, Iowa, all sons, and Grace Wise, Prosser, Washington, a daughter.

RADIOPHONE HEARD BY REGISTER STAFF

Members of The Register business, mechanical and editorial staffs were guests of Harold E. Yost, manager of the West End theater, last night at the screening of "Doubling For Romeo," starring Will Rogers, and also at the radiophone concert which followed the film.

Through the activities of Howard White, chief motion picture operator of the theater, a complete receiving station has been assembled and installed in the projecting room at the rear of the auditorium. Attached to the instrument is a state horn, similar to those used for phonographs, and it is through this horn that the sounds are sent out to the audiences.

White is working to adjust the instrument to the proper receiving requirements and believes, it will be about two weeks before he has it in shape, according to the statement made last night by Willard A. Ashford, also a radio expert, who was demonstrating the instrument in White's temporary absence. He was enthusiastic in his praise of the work White has accomplished to date with the instrument.

Last night the receiver "picked up" the concert given by the Western Electric company in the Kinema theater, Los Angeles. The numbers were both instrumental and vocal. The last number, a tenor solo from "Martha," was particularly clear. Yost's guests were much interested in the concert and in the radiophone itself, and the progress in receiving, under Howard White's direction, will be observed with keen pleasure, it was stated.

TEST CHEMICALS EXPLODE. BURN BOYD SLEEPER

Boyd Sleeper, 18, son of County Assessor James Sleeper, today received severe burns about the face and neck when chemicals with which he was experimenting in the chemistry laboratory at the high school here, exploded.

While the burns are painful, the physician in charge stated that they were not serious and that the boy would be able to resume his school work within a week.

Sleeper was preparing a test on caustic lime in the chemistry class conducted by Professor T. B. Kelly when the accident occurred.

He was heating a preparation of sodium acetate and sodium hydroxide in a small tube. The tube clogged and the rapid heating caused the chemicals to explode, throwing the acid over Sleeper's face and neck.

SELL SYNDICATE IN HUNTINGTON BEACH FIELD AT $225,000

Selby-Root-Hogue Company Is Purchaser of Miller Properties

MACHRIS WELL WONDER In Richfield Section Big Union Gusher Climbs to 4600 Barrels Day

By ELWOOD J. MUNGER.
Several transactions and changes were made in the past week at Huntington Beach. The biggest and most important oil transaction was the sale of the Miller syndicate to the Selby-Root and Hogue company for a consideration of $225,000.
The property of the Miller syndicate all looks very productive. Such wells as the Eddystone Oil corporation, now the Shell-Union, has brought in and the Mackris Brothers' No. 2 puts the Miller syndicate property among the most choice in the field. The Selby-Root and Hogue company should have little trouble in developing a big production on the Miller syndicate. The Selby-Root-Hogue Oil company is headed by F. M. Selby, president of the Selby Oil and Gas company of Oklahoma.
With the sale of the Miller syndicate and the releasing of his interests in the Edens-Pracy Oil company, R. W. ("Tut") Edens virtually retires from the role of an oil producer to that of a drilling contractor. Edens has built up a powerful and efficient organization in the Orange County Drilling company and to this work he will devote his entire attention.

To Deepen Wells.
Neil Anderson, superintendent of the Selby-Root-Hogue Oil company and the Mosier special interests, has taken over the Huntington Signal and Edens syndicate to put on production for a share of the oil. He will deepen the Edens syndicate, putting it down into the deep high gravity producing sands, and will trace out the water in the Huntington-Signal and put it on production as well.
Starting off at the rate of 100 barrels an hour is the record made by the Machris brothers No. 2 well at Huntington Beach. Completed at 4020 feet, this new well makes the north side of the field look better than ever. The big well has settled down to 1200 barrels and bids fair to become one of the long-lived big producers of the field.

Pantages-Huntington is back on production. Three months ago this well developed water. The water was shut off with little difficulty and the hole was deepened to 2380 feet. Starting off at 150 barrels, the well is expected to increase this production as it gets underway and pumps off the "dead" and heavy oil.
The Petroleum Midway is rigging up to deepen its famous high gravity well, Vollmer-Meyer No. 1.
Flushed with the wonderful success of No. 1, now producing 550 barrels, the Rio Bravo Oil company is building a derrick for another well and will rush the drilling as rapidly as possible.

Business Building Is to Be Erected at 615 West Fourth St.

J. A. George, who recently erected an apartment house at 1216 North Broadway, today was developing plans for the erection of a brick business structure at 615 West Fourth street. The proposed building will extend the business section on West Fourth one block further west.
He has purchased the lot of Mrs. Laura I. Pickering at a consideration of $8000. The lot has a frontage of fifty feet. Tenants occupying the residence now on the property were notified yesterday to vacate. As soon as they leave, the house will be moved or razed and the work of building will be begun.
George said that he was not fully decided whether he would construct a one or two-story building, but was rather inclined to a one-story. He contemplates three store rooms. Modern and attractive fronts will feature the structure.
George purchased the lot through the agency of Warner and Warner.

REALTORS WILL HEAR FACTS ON GENERATING PLANT BOND PROPOSAL

Discussion of the proposed issue of $75,000 bonds for providing a plant for generating electricity at the municipal power house for use in illuminating street ornamental lighting systems will be the feature discussion at the luncheon of the Santa Ana Realty board at James's gold room tomorrow at 12:15. It was announced today.
W. W. Hoy, as chairman of the committee, has been gathering data and will make a report. Hoy wrote to a number of cities for the information. Replies have been received and the facts accumulated will be presented to the realtors.
The cities in which the municipal electric plants are now idle are buying current wholesale from the Edison Electric company. At Anaheim it is being distributed to consumers at 7 cents a kilowatt and at Riverside at 8 cents. In Santa Ana domestic consumers are paying 8 cents, with service direct from the Southern California Edison company. Freeman Bloodgood will be chairman.

PROPOSE REALTY CONVENTION BE HELD HERE

With the support of the realty boards of Orange, Anaheim, Fullerton and Santa Ana and other organizations in the county, representatives of Santa Ana will go before the directors of the California Real Estate association at their quarterly meeting to be held at the Alexandria hotel, Los Angeles, next Saturday at 9:30 a. m., with definite assurance that this city can provide accommodations for the 1922 convention of the state association.
Selection of the convention city will be made at this meeting. The business session will last one hour and at 10:30 a. m. President C. C. Tatum will throw the doors open for the state association.

GILMAKER OFFER TO LEGION MEN IS ACCEPTED

Big Improvements at Home of Veterans Here Are Contemplated

Marking the first step in carrying out plans which Santa Ana Post No. 131, American Legion, has in mind for making extensive additions to its home on Birch street, the organization, through its commander, Maurice Enderle, has accepted an offer from Joseph Gilmaker, of San Francisco, to sell to the Post a piece of ground 35 by 65 feet at the rear of the building, it was announced today. The price is $2500.
"The post plans to extend the building to the east to cover the piece of ground it is buying," Enderle who has been carrying on negotiations with Gilmaker for several weeks, said. "It is our expectation to put a second story over the present drill hall and over the proposed extension to the east. Another possibility that has been discussed in the post is the raising of the front of the building to three stories."
To Raise Funds
"Definite plans as to what can be done and will be done this year will rest largely upon our financial condition following our endeavors to raise money at the proposed carnival, at the minstrel show and in other ways. Eventually, however, the post will carry out some scheme of additions that will provide us with more room."
"We need some good-sized rooms in which men can entertain themselves. That is, we need some good sleeping-rooms. We also need some men passing through here may sleep. Our aim is to make the place a real legion home."
Enderle has not completed negotiations with Gilmaker so far as terms are concerned. He has received a definite offer as to price and has accepted the offer.
To Make Payment
The Legion now owes about $12,000 upon its property on Birch street. A part of that is upon a mortgage and a part is in payment for stock in the old army company. Under its agreement with the army stockholders, the post in May is to make the second of its five payments for the stock.

SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS REAL ESTATE LAW

Santa Ana realtors today were interested in the announcement that the supreme court of the state had upheld the real estate law of California—a law that gives the commissioner power to revoke licenses of dealers who have been found guilty of improper practices in the conduct of their business.
The decision came in the appeal of A. Scmig, of East Oakland, whose license had been revoked by Commissioner Edwin T. Kiser from a ruling by the Alameda superior court.
Scmig was accused of having collected for a client payments on account of the purchase of the client's property and retaining for himself a considerable percentage of the payment when he illegally accounted for them.
The broker was given a hearing by the commissioner and the charges against him were supported, evidence tending to show it is declared by Glenn Willaman, secretary of the California Real Estate association, that Scmig had forced his client's endorsement to the checks offered in payment. His license was promptly revoked.
Scmig appealed to the superior court for a writ of review, and following decision against him by the court, appealed to the state supreme court, which has sustained the lower court.
The appeal acted as a stay of execution of the commissioner's decision, and Scmig has continued in the real estate business. He must now cease to operate a real estate brokerage business.
Other dealers in the state have lost their license for dishonest practice, according to Willaman. In virtually every case made of the realty license law, the courts have upheld the real estate department. "The real estate law will eliminate dishonest dealers from the business sooner or later," said J. C. Wallace, secretary of the Santa Ana Realty board, today.

NEW COUNTY OFFICER BUYS HOME IN S. A.

A. A. Brock recently appointed county horticultural commissioner, has purchased through the agency of Warner and Warner the residence at 817 South Broadway. The property was purchased from Weiss and Weiss, a real estate firm of Long Beach.

Demand for Subdivision Lots in Northeast Part of City Spirited

Opening of the Dresser subdivision on French street, north of Fifteenth, has emphasized the demand for lots in the northeast part of the city, according to John C. Wallace, of Wallace and Goode, who have the tract in charge. They report the sale of three lots and reservation of four more made this week, in advance of the formal plotting and acceptance of the seven acres.
Wallace, W. W. Hoy and Cal Hatfield are the men who have made the purchases, and, according to Wallace, each will have a house on his lot within a very short time.
There are thirty-two lots in the tract.
Members of the firm declare that they are going to specialize on subdivisions in the northern part of the city, and anticipate the opening of other tracts when the Dresser subdivision is sold out.

S. A. WILL BE SECOND CITY IN SOUTH, SAYS MAN ABSENT 15 YEARS

Mel Trickey, who has been absent from the city for fifteen years, has become a permanent resident of Santa Ana. He has associated himself with his brother, Frank Trickey, in the real estate business and the brothers have opened an office in the Meyer Hotel building on Spurgeon street.
Trickey was identified with his father and brothers in the grocery business here a number of years ago. For the past two years he has been traveling for a wholesale grocery firm at Pomona.
"Santa Ana has made a wonderful growth since I left here," said Trickey today. "I find it difficult to get my bearings. Old familiar places have disappeared and new surroundings have appeared. Santa Ana is going to be a big city and I am glad to get back. In my opinion, this city in time will be the second city in Southern California."

$100,000 DEALS IN RANCH LAND NOW PENDING

Properties Here, at Villa Park and at Olive Are to Change Hands

Negotiations were in progress today looking to the transfer of ranch properties at Villa Park, Olive and Santa Ana and involving total considerations of more than $100,000.
L. E. Martin, of 610 South Main street, this city, has purchased a five-acre tract of walnuts and oranges on North Main street from J. Morgan. The consideration was $6500 an acre. The location is on the east side of Main street about midway between La Veta and Chapman avenues, Orange. There are good residence improvements on the tract.
Martin is manager of the Anaheim branch agency of Dale and Company, distributor for Packard and Reo automobiles in Orange county.
He will move his family to the new home within the next two weeks and will sell the residence on South Main.
Martin came to Santa Ana a year ago from Camrose, Alberta, Canada, and already has become one of the enthusiastic boosters for Santa Ana and Orange county.
No one can make a mistake by buying Orange county property at prices that are being asked today," said Martin. "No matter what today's costs may be, the prices are going to advance, and they are going considerably higher. The ideal living conditions are going to establish prices here far beyond the interest-earning capacity of ranch property."
The sale of 25.30 acres at Olive in the Edens estate is being negotiated, according to a member of the firm of Short and Pilcher, real estate dealers at Orange. The purchaser is S. W. Miller of Fullerton.
Sixteen acres are planted to walnuts and the rest is vacant land. The consideration is approximately $35,000, it is reported.
It is said that fifteen heirs are involved in the transaction and that it may be some time before the signatures of all can be secured. Papers are now in escrow, it was reported.
That Elmer Horace Ball, who is principal of the schools at La Canada, intends to forsake his profession, was disclosed here today, when it became known that he had purchased the ten-acre citrus ranch of Louis Nussen, at Villa Park. The sale was made by Ball's father-in-law, W. M. Popplewell, who acquired the ranch a few days ago and then transferred it to the son-in-law.
It is understood the consideration was approximately $82,000 for the ten acres.
Popplewell also has sold five acres to another son-in-law, Hugh Conger Thompson. This tract adjoins acreage owned by Thompson and was purchased, it is understood, as an investment.

LAGUNA REAL ESTATE ACTIVITY INCREASES

(Special to The Register)
LAGUNA BEACH, March 23.—With summer approaching real estate activity here is increasing. A number of purchasers of lots recently making preparations for the summer vacation.
Roy W. Peacock, realtor, reports the following recent sales: One acre in Laguna Heights No. 3 to Joe Skidmore; the DeKruit furnished houses on Laguna Cliffs to Miss Sarah Van Peat, of Pasadena; two lots in Laguna Cliffs to H. Rider, of Laguna Beach, adding to the eight lots in the same tract recently purchased by him; W. E. Jenkins, Frank S. Browne and Garfield Jubb, Laguna Beach, one lot each on Laguna Cliffs.
Peacock also reports the sale of lots to four Santa Anans, one lot each to G. S. Wilbur, F. W. Shields and Berga Trumble and two lots to Leigh Galloway, all located on Laguna Cliffs.
Homer Hansen, of Burbank, who recently bought a fifty foot lot on the ocean front in Laguna terrace has started a cottage. Hinds and Ropp have begun modern six-room house on Laguna Cliffs.

FERTILIZER TESTS IS PLAN OF FARM BUREAU

Members of the farm bureau fertilizer committee are preparing to interview ranchers and the county board of supervisors regarding the lease of small parcels of land of various types to be used as check plots.
It is the plan of the committee to lease for five years at least, a number of lots to be used to test fertilizers. It is hoped to secure a number of these from individuals, Farm Advisor H. E. Wahlberg stated, and to secure from the supervisors, a lease on plots in the county farm. This question will be presented at the next meeting of the board.
Those on the committee are F. T. Mertz, Dickson Tubbs, L. A. Hampton, and G. M. Allen.

P. E. TICKET BOOK IS STOLEN FROM STUDENT

The thief who looted a coat belonging to Kathryn Copeland, 1725 West Fourth street, a student at Washington school, evidently had a means of escape in mind. The loot consisted of a P. E. ticket book, containing 31 "rides." The theft occurred while the coat was hanging in the hallway at the school, according to a report made to the police today.

OWN HOME IDEA NOT NEW BISBY SHOWS

By R. L. BISBY (Manager Spurgeon Realty Company)

The Realty board of Santa Ana seems to think that it started this proposition of "Own Your Own Home." When Columbus set sail to discover a new country he started the game of owning your own home. When the Pilgrim Fathers landed at Plymouth Rock, they came with the avowed purpose of owning their own homes. Individual rights can only be had in a country where the majority of the homes are owned by the individual.
In all foreign countries where the feudal system prevails, or where the majority of the land is owned by a few, there is a lack of human interest, lack of individuality. No man can express himself to the fullest extent while having the fear of rent day hanging over his head.
America for years has been the melting-pot of the world. It has attracted to its shores men and women of all climes and classes who have been lured here by the wonderful tales of independence that have been sent back to them by the first comers. Just think what it must mean to the European from the country where he has always been forced to rent a piece of land and a house, to come here and have the privilege of owning his own home. From the date of the ownership of this home he begins to take an active part in the government of his country.
The question has been asked, "Why 'Own Your Own Home' week?" Statisticians a few months ago printed a map of the United States on which they showed Southern California as a "white spot." This meant that the business conditions in Southern California were better than any other locality in the United States.
Again we turn to the statisticians and ask, "Why?" He comes back with the statement that "homes were being built in greater numbers here than in any other locality in the United States."
The next question to arise is, "How does the building of homes stimulate industry?" In the building of a home every industry and manufacturing enterprise is brought into active operation.
What a consciousness of good; what a joy and what a happiness to own your own home! To rear your family under their own parental roof. What a lesson in civility the man of moderate means teaches his children when he owns his own home! If every one in the United States owned his own home there would be no vandalism, no Bolshevism.

EXHIBIT OF SPRING FASHIONS COLORFUL

"Whenas in silks my Julia goes" there is little doubt that she would be able to find a charming frock to suit her beauty, were she to visit Spicer's during the progress of the spring fashion exhibit there.
Such exquisite softness of weave and shadings of color as delight the eye of the prospective purchaser! All the colors of a colorful season seem to be featured in the gowns. One model suitable for an afternoon bridge tea or perhaps for a not too formal dinner, was a Canton crepe in a combination of sand color and the beautiful shade known as "caramel" which in a former day would have been called "watermelon" perhaps, or "geranium." One of the cleverest points about the frock was its girlish of silk floss in sand color, matching the simple embroidered sleeves and blouse drapery.
Crisp taffetas breathe the very spirit of youth, with their corded and ruffled effects. Blues predominate in the taffetas which, as ever, are especially good with the coming of spring, but it is in the popular Canton crepes and the equally popular and slightly newer "Krepe Knits" that the riot of color comes.
One Mohawk Canton crepe, (and for the benefit of the untitled, Mohawk is a deep rusty red, wonderfully rich and beautiful) depends for its undeniably beauty, upon the charm of its uneven line and clever little tight roses of the self material with girlish and deep flying ends of a rich velvet ribbon of a slightly more brilliant tone. Happy the almond eyed enchantress who dons that frock!
And wraps! No more are coats purely utilitarian and made for warmth alone. They are as ornamental as the gowns they cover and indeed that couldn't be stirred by the luxurious feel of a "wrappy cloak" of dark blue chamamois, whose rather Japanese-like sleeves, like the body, are lined with deep rust colored Canton crepe; or perhaps a Normandy cloth in sand color with heavy silken fringe and perhaps a chastely beautiful design in silk braid outlining its hem line. They lovely things are displayed against an artistically decorated background.

ATTORNEY ILL, THEFT EXAMINATION DELAYED

Preliminary examination of Dennis Weaver and C. R. Hickey, charged with grand larceny in connection with the alleged theft of $4,000 worth of oil well equipment from the Consolidated Oil company's property in the Santa Ana canyon, had today been continued to May 18 at 10 a. m. by Justice J. B. Cox.
Postponement was allowed at request of Attorney William L. Hamlin, representing the defendants, late yesterday when the case was scheduled to come before Justice Cox. Hamlin has been ill and was prevented from preparing his defense. He is now convalescing.

NEW REALTY FIRM IS ESTABLISHED IN S. A.

D. A. Casey and C. W. Holcombe have formed a real estate partnership and are operating under the name of Casey and Holcombe. They are located at 107 West Third street. Both men have been engaged for a number of years in the real estate brokerage business.

PLAN MARBLE BASE AT ROWLEY CIGAR STAND

Installation of a marble base and rearrangement of the cigar stand at the Rowley drug company's store was in progress today.

THIEF STEALS BAG OF SANTA ANA PHYSICIAN

If the thief who stole an instrument bag from the automobile of Dr. J. L. Maroon was a drug addict with a rosy vision of "dope" before him, disappointment must have been his lot.
In reporting the theft to the police, Dr. Maroon stated that the bag contained no drugs. It was with its contents, valued at $100, he said. The theft occurred late yesterday, while the car was parked in front of the Spurgeon building.

BICYCLE STOLEN

A bicycle belonging to J. D. Carter, 1025 Cypress street, was stolen at the corner of Third and Birch streets, according to a report to police headquarters today. The wheel disappeared last evening.

REPORT COAT STOLEN

Theft of a gray coat containing valued papers belonging to W. J. Giddins, of the Richlieu hotel, was reported to the police today. The coat was taken from Giddins' car while it was standing at a local oil station.

BIG PLANT HERE HAS OUTPUT OF 7000 CRATES FOR ONIONS EACH DAY

Santa Ana Factory Has Payroll of $6000 Monthly With 85 Employees

100% INCREASE IN TOYS Manufacture of Milk Cases Added to Products of Growing Business

With a payroll of eighty-five persons and a monthly wage payment of approximately $6000, the California Crate company today was working with full steam ahead in the manufacture of thousands of onion crates for distribution in the Coachella and Imperial valleys. The plant is putting out 7000 crates daily, Fred P. Jayne, president and manager of the company, stated today. The factory will make 550,000 crates.
The company has added a new product to its line, that of manufacturing milk bottle cases. Machinery specially designed for the work has just been installed and a carload of hardwood from the East for the manufacture of the cases has just arrived. It is anticipated that this department will develop into one of the big features of the rapidly developing business of the company.
The company is shipping a carload of onion crates daily and is receiving two carloads of material every day, according to the manager.
The operating force is divided into day and night shifts, sixty-five persons being engaged on crate work, ten on juvenile toys and furniture, three on milk bottle cases and general box work and seven in the office and traveling force.
"The output of the toy and juvenile department this year will be double that of last year," said Jayne today. "We have opened sales rooms for our toys in San Francisco and Los Angeles and all indications point to a 100 per cent increase in our manufacture and shipments of toys and toy furniture."
Jayne has just returned from a week's automobile trip through the onion growing sections of the Imperial and Coachella valleys. He says there are at least 32,000 acres, the largest in the history of Southern California, planted in the two valleys to this vegetable.
"Present crop conditions indicate carload shipments by April 25," Jayne said. "The crop will reach the enormous total of 1800 carloads, onion growers estimate. Conditions are such this year that virtually every onion should be shipped and sold at good prices, as the storage houses of the country are almost empty of last season's crop. Prices today are three times what they were at this period last year."
"It would not be surprising if the onion growers of the Coachella valley should make $500 an acre this year, inasmuch as several of them have from 80 to 100 acres they stand to make some big money in the onion-growing game."

FRECKLE-FACE

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots
Do you know how easy it is to remove those ugly spots so that no one will call you freckle-face?
Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength, from your druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of freckles and get a beautiful complexion. The sun and winds of March have a strong tendency to bring out freckles, and as a result more Othine is sold in this month. Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.

HOME OWNERS HAVE THE ADVANTAGE

Between the home owner and the renter, every advantage is in favor of the home owner. It is a well worn maximum that declares: "Three moves are equal to one fire." That is—your goods are damaged as much in moving three times as they would be by the average fire, without fire insurance.
No man ought to go through life with a handicap. Therefore every man should own his own home.
Those who have property to sell on the payment plan say that any man who can pay rent can own a home. Perhaps it will be necessary to stint a bit at first in order to make the first payment, but after a term of a few years, when the property is all paid for, there will be a satisfaction and an advantage that will well repay the buyer for any stinting he has done.

CHAUTAUQUA DATES ANNOUNCED BY P.-T. A.

GARDEN GROVE, March 23.—The Radcliff chautauqua is to present its entertainment at Garden Grove on April 15, 17, 18, under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association. It is said this year's program is better than any heretofore staged in Garden Grove.

The committee in charge of the sale of tickets is to be announced later.

IRISH MOTIFS MARK PHILATHEA PARTY

GARDEN GROVE, March 23.—The Misses Marcia and Clara Carmichael and Ruth Mills entertained the Philathea class of the M. E. church and their young men friends at the Carmichael home Friday evening.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with green and white streamers and bouquets of Irish orchids. Every "kissed the Blarney stone."

Irish games were played and a specialty was given by all at the party.

Leigh Tournat won the first prize for having the best "stunt" which was a comic poem entitled "When a Man's a Man."

At a late hour refreshments of sandwiches, cake, hot chocolate and candy shampoos which carried out the green and white color scheme were served.

The guests were:

Misses Agnes and Veda Griffith, Agnes Harkness, Eva Lake, Beatie Woodhouse, Velda Barnes, Audrey Bon Durand, Gladys Pitt, Amelia Sidmore and the hostesses Ruth Mills and Clara and Marcia Carmichael, Kenneth Dungan, Walter Dungan, Floyd Andres, Earl Morrell, Mark Morrell, Johnny Bragg, Wallis Bragg, Harold Chaffee, Clair Chaffee, Leigh Tournat, Albert Schneider, Archie Stuck and Reynburn Purves of Santa Ana. Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Woodhouse assisted the hostesses.

Class Pays Forfeit

The second period algebra class of the Garden Grove union high school was entertained by the first period algebra class at the home of Professor A. D. Hoenschel last Saturday evening.

In a contest for the highest grades last quarter the second period algebra class won the treat.

Games and music helped to make up the evening's pleasure.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

The following pupils were present: Howard Harer, Forest Hale, Dolph Kelsey, Vida Collins, Fern Wilson, Elsie Smith, Norma Larson, Catherine Miller, Inez Russell, Cynthia Kirsom, Beulah Barnett, Frank Thompson, Ben Richey, Carl Korn, Archie Kearns, Tommy Jentgas, Harold Davidson, Euba and Reba Azlin, Florence Davidson, Helen Wight and the teacher, Mr. Hoenschel.

Guild Girls Meet

The World Wide Guild Girls of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. F. E. Bissitt last Friday evening.

After a short business session a program on missions was given, which was followed by a social hour and refreshments. Ten members were present.

The Junior World Wide Guild girls gave a shadow pantomime at the Baptist church Sunday evening.

While Mrs. Gleason recited a poem, the girls, assisted by their leader, Mrs. Jessie Wadde, gave the mission play, which proved very entertaining.

Mrs. Irene Jacques sang a solo at both the morning and evening services.

as possible. It is the intention to drill four more wells at once.

The Standard Oil company came in for a share of the new Huntington Beach production with two wells. Huntington B-6, drilled to 2665, came in a 300-barrel well. Jones Community No. 2, completed at 2905, came in at 500 barrels.

The greatest oil producer in the Southern California field today is the Union Oil company's Morse No. 3 at Richfield. The well is making 4600 barrels. Just across the line on the Chapman property adjoining, the Union has Chapman No. 11 nearing completion. This well will probably come in somewhere around 5000.

Close Transaction.

The Amalgamated Oil company has closed a transaction for the Placenta-Pacific at Richfield. The Placenta-Pacific is in a very promising wildcat section of the field.

The Dixie Hills country got another jolt downward so far as becoming an oil field is concerned, when the Shell-Union abandoned Chino No. 1.

At Santa Fe Springs the Standard will probably be the next to bring in a well. The Union, however, may be the first with the next well, as Meyer No. 5 is about ready to be tried out.

A group of prominent oil men, several of them connected with the largest producing companies in Southern California, have just leased 1,100 acres of what appears to be the most promising oil-bearing land in the state, located near Carpentaria, Santa Barbara county.

Get 120-Acre Lease.

The city of Long Beach has leased to A. T. Jergins and associates Reservoir Hill, a tract containing 120 acres. This lease is the largest one-piece lease in the Signal Hill field. The property is located between the General Petroleum's Black-Drake gusher and the Cal-Mex. Oil and Refining company's Kirkpatrick lease, and is in what is now regarded the most productive area of the field.

Jack Doyle is now an oil producer. The Doyle-Clune Oil company completed its first well on Signal Hill a few days ago and the new producer started off doing 700 barrels.

The United Oil company has developed on Signal during the past week three wells producing 2500 barrels.

Leonard No. 1 looks like the next big producer for Signal Hill.

The Shell company's addition to the Hill's new production for the week is a 475-barrel well at Church No. 1. This producer was completed at 3029 feet. Patton-Wilson No. 1, the well on production test last week, pulled the 8 1/4-inch and is going on deeper.

PROPOSE REALTY MEN MEET HERE

the regional conference of dealers. Directors from Orange county are Everett A. White, Santa Ana; Bird V. Bebee, Anaheim, and William M. Irwin, Fullerton.

It is expected that a large number of dealers from the county will attend the conference following the meeting of the directors. The conference is open to all dealers, whether members of the realty boards or state association, Tatum advises.

A dinner-smoker will be held at the Virginia hotel, Long Beach, tomorrow night, when the president's cup, won by Long Beach for the best home address at the state convention in Oakland in January, will be presented. The address was made by Henry P. Barbour, president of the Long Beach club. Some of the Santa Ana dealers have declared their intention of being present at Long Beach.

Practical Suggestions.

Never drive on a retarded spark. Shellac will stop small leaks in radiators.

Do not wait until a "squeak" is heard before oiling.

A tool in the car is worth thousands in the garage.

Use distilled, and not "boiled," water in the battery.

A wise motorist carries his license with him, at all times.

Scarcely one man in 20 remembers the number of his motor.

Cover the spare tire and protect it from rain, sun and dirt.

A motorist should be as clever in backing a car as he is when driving forward.

An Indicator for Backing.

A small notch cut on the under side of the steering wheel rim, in a position nearest the driver will greatly aid when backing the car in a straight and narrow direction. Before making the notch simply set the wheels in a straight position. When backing, if the mark be to one side or to the other, it naturally shows that the wheels are not straight.

Causes for Overheating.

Overheating of an engine is caused by excess carbon in cylinders, poor lubrication, poor cooling, improper valve and ignition timing, valves not seating properly, spark advanced too far, radiator not functioning properly, or improper fan adjustment.

LOVE AND MUSIC

Nothing so stirs our heart strings as LOVE and, next to love—Music; in fact, love and music go hand in hand; where there is love in the heart, there is music in the soul.

To have and to enjoy both to the fullest extent, we need music in the home. Nothing else that money can buy, cost it ever so much, can take its place or fulfill its purpose. Many may long for music in the home and think its accomplishments beyond their reach, but we make it both easy and possible, not only by the very convenient terms on which we sell high grade, standard pianos, player-pianos and phonographs, but also by the very moderate prices at which we sell them.

Just think—we can sell you a good, new piano for only $295.00 and a splendid, standard make, new player-piano for only $495.00, and don't forget that we make the terms so easy that you can readily afford it.

Your old piano or phonograph taken in exchange. When we say that we sell the justly celebrated Super-Tone Burnham phonographs and at the right prices and terms, well—enough is said. Come in and see us, we will be glad to demonstrate our instruments for you, and you will be glad you did.

TERRIFIC SPEED PREDICTED FOR SUPER PLANES

Airships with powerplants of 5000 to 10,000 horsepower, traveling at 500 miles an hour at an elevation of 40,000 to 50,000 feet and carrying passengers with all the comfort of transportation of today—this is what persons traversing this mundane sphere will see within the next fifteen years, according to a prediction made today by Glenn Martin at the Lions club luncheon at St. Ann's Inn.

Martin treated on various phases of aviation, dealing chiefly with the development of bombing planes and the effect aeronautics will have on future wars, should there be any more. He maintained that the nation that properly equips itself with fighting and bombing airplanes will virtually eliminate possibility of war.

Superchargers now being used for equalizing of pressure on carburetors and motor cylinders today make human endurance the limit of altitude that a plane may go to, he declared.

With the supercharger further perfected, he anticipated the time when aircraft will be carrying passengers at extreme elevations at the speed of 500 miles an hour, and with the planes equipped with cabins for fifty passengers. He also predicted possibility of transportation from San Francisco to Chicago in twelve hours by plane.

The speed will be possible by reason of the lessened air resistance at the higher elevation, and the comfort of passengers will be maintained by the uniform air pressure in the cabin maintained by the supercharger.

Motors Work Perfectly. Motors will work perfectly in the higher altitude under the supercharged pressure at the carburetor, he said.

Isabel and Maxine Bird, daughters of S. H. Bird, entertained with dances. The girls showed evidence of efficient training and their graceful interpretations were roundly applauded. S. B. Kaufman, chairman, announced that the girls had received their training in Santa Ana.

The Lions' double quartette sang two numbers.

Club members were urged to lay plans for attending the convention to be held in Fresno May 12 and 13. It is the intention to make an effort to bring the next convention to Santa Ana.

Harry Hanson presided in the absence of the president, Dr. Elliott H. Rowland.

D. EYMAN HUFF TO ATTEND BIG SCOUT MEET

D. Eyman Huff, president of the Orange County Boy Scout council, will represent that body at the annual meeting of the National Boy Scout council in Chicago next week, according to announcement today.

The meeting is the first one to be held outside New York City, and it is expected that a large number of Western representatives will attend who would otherwise be unable to do so. The delegates will frame and adopt policies for the promotion of the Boy Scout work in all parts of the United States.

The council consists of 600 men from communities throughout the United States. President Warren G. Harding is honorary president of the council and Colin H. Livingstone, Washington, D. C. banker, is active president.

Other California delegates who will attend this annual meeting include C. C. Moore of San Francisco, Stuart W. French of Pasadena, John A. MacGregor of San Francisco, and Milton A. MacRae of San Diego.

OWN YOUR OWN HOME SPEAKERS READY

Five minute speakers, prepared to drive home the importance of the "Own Your Own Home" campaign, today were ready to talk at local theaters tonight.

Assignments have been made as follows: Princess, 8:30 o'clock, Everett A. White; West End, 7:15 o'clock, O. H. Barr; Temple, 7:15 o'clock, the Rev. F. T. Porter, pastor of the First-Christ Church.

MAN'S STATE CRITICAL
Although C. C. Kellogg, who was removed to the county hospital from his room at a local hotel in a stupor, was still in a serious condition today, according to reports from the hospital, it was believed that he will recover. Kellogg is still unable to talk coherently or to give any detailed account of the case. He has been unable to take any nourishment, thus weakening his condition, it is said.

ENTERTAIN LETTER MEN
Letter men of the 1921 high school football squad were entertained at the home of Joseph Smith, 120 South Broadway, last evening. In addition to the twelve monogram holders, Ray Adkinson, Frances Selway, William Cole and H. M. Morrison were present.

ACCUSES CHIROPRACTOR.
Dr. J. A. Hatch, Santa Ana chiropractor, was this afternoon charged with practicing without a license from the state board of medical examiners, in a complaint filed with the district attorney by Albert Carter, special agent for the medical board. Today's complaint marks the second time the charge has been filed against Dr. Hatch. A previous charge is now pending in court.

BANK SUES TWO
C. W. Longmire and C. A. Westgate were made defendants in two civil actions filed this afternoon in the superior court by the California National bank of Santa Ana. Both suits were brought to recover on alleged notes. The sum of $360, with $85 for attorney fees and interest, was asked from Longmire. Westgate was sued for $251, interest and $75 for attorney fees. Attorney S. M. Davis filed the actions for the bank.

AWARDED JUDGMENT
Superior Judge Z. B. West this afternoon filed judgment for $1,720.65 in favor of the Anaheim Auto company, which recently brought suit against George C. Welles on account of an alleged indebtedness. Today's judgment carries also an award of $114 interest, $12.50 costs of suit and $150 as attorneys fees. The plaintiff was represented by Attorneys Ames and McFadden, of Anaheim.

STOLEN CAR RECOVERED
A Buick car stolen from St. Ann's Inn had been recovered today. The car, which belonged to Blair and company, Los Angeles brokerage firm, disappeared between 7 and 9 p. m. It was found later in the evening by County Motorcycle Officer O. K. Carr at Birch park.

Scattered throughout 32 states in the Union there are 105 factories manufacturing passenger automobiles, and 140 factories producing motor trucks.

ITALIAN SHIPS SEIZED BY GREEKS RELEASED

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 23 — Confirmation has been received here of the release of the Italian steamship Abbazia, which was seized by a Greek warship a few days ago on the ground that it was carrying contraband of war for the Turkish nationalists. France and Italy will ask heavy indemnities from Greece for her actions, according to rumors in Turkish official circles.

Greece has released the Italian steamer Umbria, which was in custody twenty-four hours, and also liberated the relief ship Francesca, which was among the Italian vessels that were seized in the Aegean and Black seas. The Francesca has proceeded to Novorossisk.

LOS ANGELES RAILWAY PLANS FOR SUBWAY

LOS ANGELES, March 23—An application for a franchise to construct a subway more than a mile in length will be filed with the Los Angeles city council tomorrow by the Pacific Electric railway, officials of the line announced.

It is designed to run from the Hill street station of the railway, between Fourth and Fifth streets, in a northeasterly direction, to the junction of Sunset and Glendale boulevards.

The estimated cost is in "excess of $1,850,000."

250 STANFORD FOLK TO LEAVE FOR SOUTH

L. B. Valla, district freight and passenger agent here for the Southern Pacific, today received information that 250 students of Stanford university returning to their homes for the Easter holidays will leave Palo Alto at 8 p. m. tomorrow on a special Southern Pacific train for Los Angeles and other Southern California points.

The Stanford students' special will carry track, baseball, swimming and boxing teams from the university, who will compete in the south during the holidays.

Two more state picnic gatherings of interest to hundreds of residents of this county are announced. The Colorado picnic will be held at Sycamore Grove, Los Angeles, Saturday, March 25, and the Nebraska picnic at the same place Thursday, March 30.

April 1 to 10 the public schools here, with the exception of Franklin school, will be closed to allow the pupils and teachers to enjoy the annual spring vacation. Because of its late start last fall, the Franklin school will remain in session.

Members of the Knights of Columbus council today were recalling amusing incidents in connection with a mock trial conducted at the council meeting Tuesday night. Tony Mullica, accused of a "heinous offense" by J. Ogden Markle, was acquitted by a jury in "Judge" E. B. Collier's court. The jury was composed of Leo Rowland, Jr., John Maag Jr., Elmer Biggs and Carl J. Klatt. John T. Connelly, grand knight, presided.

The weekly bulletin of the state highway commission, covering road conditions in the state, says: "Between Whittier and Fullerton, the new pavement has been opened from the Los Angeles-Orange county line to La Mirada street, where the traffic is detoured southerly over paved county road for one-half mile south to Capital avenue, La Habra, then on paved roads east on Central avenue to the Brea canyon road, then southerly via Brea to Fullerton."

COMPLAINT CHARGING
$33 BAD CHECK FILED

E. M. Smith was charged today with passing a no-fund check upon H. W. Lewis, in a complaint filed with the district attorney's office. The check, made out for $33.48, was alleged to have been drawn upon a Los Angeles bank March 11.

TWO SEIZED AS STREET LIGHT IS WRECKED

After the car in which they were riding had shattered an ornamental street light and post at Eighth and Main streets this afternoon, William Russell, 31, and E. F. Bresler, 29, both of Los Angeles, were held by the police for an investigation.

City Marshal Sam Devigan stated that a charge of reckless driving would probably be filed against Russell, who was at the wheel of the car when the accident took place. Russell received cuts on his right hand when he plunged through the car's windshield.

The broken fragments of a gallon demijohn, said by the authorities to have contained liquor, were picked up back of a barn near the scene of the crash. Police Officers Joe Ryan and J. L. Elliott brought this to the police station with the prisoners, both of whom denied having, as the police suspected, removed the liquor from the car and smashed its container.

If you all say that again, I'll cut you in pieces so small a kin swaller you.

Indigestion Unchecked Leads to Poisoning!

Fermentation of Food in Digestive Organs Cause or Trouble

If you suffer from indigestion it is a sure sign that your system is being slowly poisoned by the fermentation in the intestines. This condition produces heartburn, choking sensations in the chest, a feeling of heaviness or drowsiness, irritability, discouragement and despondency.

Mr. M. J. Christopher, 5724 Keyser Street, Germantown, Pa., long a sufferer from indigestion, writes: "Before using Dr. A. W. Chase's medicine, I felt so badly that I did not care whether I lived or died. I suffered from indigestion and my stomach would be so upset that even a piece of bread and a cup of coffee would give me great pain. Since taking Dr. A. W. Chase's K-I Pills I can eat almost anything without feeling any after-effects. The sore, achy feeling which I used to have in the lower part of my back is gone, and I feel no ambitions to do many things which I could not do before."

You can buy Dr. A. W. Chase's remedies at all drug stores. To be sure of getting the genuine, see that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D. are on each box. This trade mark is your protection against imitations and substitutes.—Advertisement.

TRAPPED BY A ROCK-SLIDE

WARREN BRENTWOOD stood studying the sky from the doorway of a photographer's shop in Hamilton, Bermuda. Then he turned and spoke to his employer.

"Mr. Wallace, may I have this afternoon off instead of tomorrow afternoon?"

"It doesn't make any difference to me," grunted Mr. Wallace unamiably. "After more pictures, I suppose?"

"Yes," replied Warren, flushing for his employer had little faith in his photographic ability. "I think there will be some good cloud effects."

"I don't see how you can afford to

Mr. Wallace's shop was largely supported by the thousands of American tourists that flock to Bermuda every winter. They buy eagerly for souvenirs artistic prints of characteristic Bermudian scenes. It was this trade that Warren had in mind for he knew that if he could get some new and beautiful pictures he could increase an income that, as Mr. Wallace had said, was too small. He had found a scene that he was sure would make a most popular picture if skillfully handled but had not yet succeeded in getting a satisfactory negative. He was almost ready to give up for he could not stand the expense for materials. Today as overlooking the sea. There he worked all the afternoon. At last he had several exposures that he was sure would yield good negatives.

It was late when Warren was ready to go home. He had unscrewed his tripod and laid it on the ground while he strapped his camera to his bicycle. Just as he finished doing this he was startled by a crane that flew near him. As he started, his foot struck the tripod and went to the cliff.

Warren was much vexed at this for he would have to go a full quarter of a mile to find a path to lead him down the cliff. Also the clouds were now banking solidly, the wind was getting stronger and it was evident that a storm was about to break. He decided to take his camera with him so he could shelter it from the rain if it should come.

It was well that he did so for the rain began to pour down just as he reached his tripod. Warren took shelter with his camera in one of the numerous small caverns that the sea had hollowed out in the soft rock of the cliff. There he waited for the rain to stop.

In many places along the cliff the strata of rock were tilted, sometimes almost perpendicularly. Just above the cavern that Warren entered was one of these tilted layers of blackened rock. It slanted steeply back from the upper edge of the cave's mouth, over which it projected for a few inches much like the eaves of a steep roof.

As Warren sat there watching the rain and the sea, suddenly there was a dull grinding jar, the sea was blotted from his sight and he was sitting in darkness! A section of the tilted rock had slipped down and trapped him!

At first he sat stunned. Then he sprang up, panic stricken, and thrust with all his might at the rock. He could not stir it. He shouted then, louder than he had ever shouted before in his life. But when he stopped to listen he realized how useless it was to shout. There was little hope that anybody would come along the beach that afternoon. The storm would keep people away.

As Warren tried to calm himself and think what was best to do he remembered with a sudden increase of terror that the tide was coming in. With a southeaster blowing he knew the tide would be piled high and would fill the cavern. He would be drowned without a chance to fight for his life.

In desperation he sprang up and pushed at the fallen rock again. But he could not move it, and he realized that he could do nothing by main strength. If he were to escape it must be by the use of his wits. And even in his fright it occurred to him that if he did not get out his camera, which he had ruined and nobody would ever know whether or not his exposures were good.

As he sat trying to think Warren saw by the light that slipped in around the rock that the slab was an almost perfect fit for the entrance of the cave. It stood at a very steep slant with its bottom sunk in the sand on the floor. As he examined it he thought suddenly that he might dig out under it.

He set to work eagerly with his bare hands and his tripod. But he found the sand only about a foot deep and the lower edge of the fallen rock was but five or six inches from the stone floor of the cavern. He could not squeeze out that way.

As he sat down again with this hope gone the first wave of the incoming tide reached the cave, slipped around the edges of the fallen rock and wet the sand inside. Warren strove to control his fear and keep his wits at work.

Then he noticed for the first time that the imprisoning rock did not lean close against the upper edge of the entrance but bore its weight against the outward slanting side edges of the entrance about half way down. There was a crack at the top about an inch wide. If he could only make it wider! And all at once it struck him how to do it.

With new hope he set to work to scrape a trench in the sand clear to the rock bottom of the cavern all the way across about a foot from the slab. It was hard, slow work and his hands were painfully scored by the coarse sand which was filled with sharp bits of broken shells. All the time the

THIS LITTLE PIG STAYED HOME

LAST week we saw the little pig go sailing thro' the air. And were so very much surprised that we could only stare. Of course, he landed very hard and felt so very weak. That when he tried, as try he did, he found he couldn't squeak. For quite a while upon the ground he sat and shook his head. And, when at last he found his tongue, he deeply sighed and said: "I thought that donkey was a friend and wouldn't play a trick; But that's a big mistake I see—Gee whizz, how he can kick!"

gale outside howled louder and louder and the waves splashed more and more into the cavern. But at last the trench was done, though it was filled with water. Then Warren began cautiously to widen the trench towards the fallen stone.

When he had almost reached the rock a huge roller came crashing up and struck it, there was a grating sound and the big stone began slowly to settle and slide into the trench. At the same time Warren jumped up and thrust as hard as he could at the top of the slab. His plan worked beautifully. When the rock had stopped settling Warren saw that the crack at the top had widened enough to allow him to crawl through it.

Three days later when Mr. Wallace came into the shop in the morning he stopped short and gazed at a print lying on the counter. At the bottom was signed Warren's name. Mr. Wallace stood looking at it for some time. Then he carried it to the window and studied it long and intently. Finally he turned and spoke.

"Warren," he said, "I'll give you two hundred dollars for that negative."

But Warren had been doing some figuring. "No," he replied, "but I'll take a royalty of fifty per cent. on each print that you make and sell from the negative."

This was agreed upon and Warren's business judgment proved to be good for several hundred of the prints were sold at a dollar apiece the first winter.

Warren is in business for himself now but his most profitable negative still remains the one that brought him the most thrilling experience of his life.

When Longfellow Was a Boy.

LONGFELLOW, the children's poet, was born in Portland, Maine, on February 27, 1807. The streets of this quaint little town sloped down to the water's edge where were the wharves and the ships and the sailors going to and fro. There the boy Longfellow used to love to go and watch the ships and the activities along the water front. When he was a grown man he wrote a poem entitled: "My Lost Youth," in which he tells of his loved companions and the beautiful old town. He says of it: Often I think of the beautiful town That is seated by the sea; Often in thought I go up and down The pleasant streets of that dear old town.

And my youth comes back to me. When Longfellow was three years of age he was sent to a private school. At the age of six he brought this note home to his mother from his teacher: "Master Henry Longfellow is one of the best boys we have in school. He spells and reads very well. He can also add and multiply numbers. His conduct last quarter was very correct and amiable. June 30, 1813.

N. H. CARTER."

At the age of thirteen Longfellow had his first poem printed in the Portland Gazette. It was about our country and its earlier heroes. As a young boy Longfellow loved to listen to the old tales and legends and traditions that were told to him. He would write stories about the trees, brooks, birds, stars and clouds. He often called them his playmates and when he grew to manhood he embodied in some of his beautiful poems the spirit and love which grew in his heart for the works of nature.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

THE JUNIOR COOK CHEESE SALAD DRESSING

Put into a cup or bowl
1-8 cupful vinegar (white is best)
1-8 cupful salad oil
1/2 teaspoonful salt
1 teaspoonful sugar
1/4 teaspoonful paprika
2 teaspoonfuls Roquefort or other soft cheese rubbed till fine and mealy.
Mix well with a spoon or fork.
Pour over plain lettuce leaves which have been prettily arranged on individual salad plates.
This is enough dressing for six servings.

DICKIE DACHSHUND

YOU may think I look sad, and I not only look so, but I am sad, and you would probably be too, if you were doomed to go through life looking for all the world, like a bench without a back. Well, that is what I imagine I must look like, as my body is long out of all proportion, barely held off the ground by a pair of short, dumpy legs at each end. I am certainly a curious mixture, as my body with its smooth coat, might belong to a pointer, my tail and nose are those of a terrier, while my long, flapping ears are like those of a fox hound. When you take all these, though they may be all right separately, and combine them in the make-up of a single animal, the result would make a "dog laugh." My front legs are comically bowed, besides being less than half as long as they should be, and don't begin to match the hind ones. In fact, there is nothing about me that seems to match. Hundreds, and maybe thousands of years ago, they say I was a hunting dog, and bred to follow rabbits and badgers in their holes, and bring them out alive and kicking. You see I was specially built for crawling around in holes, but now-a-days, I'm just a pet, and not expected to do anything except look like a four-legged bologna!

Wish I did have some regular employment, and then I would not have so much time to worry about my looks. Some ignorant folks think I am a new breed, or a funny mixture of a number of breeds, but right here I want to remark that few dogs can trace their ancestry as far back as I can mine. A first class picture of me has been found chiseled on an old Egyptian monument, that cannot be less than 2,000 years old, and probably older.

So my folks must have been living then, and if there were any poodles, fox-terriers or setters living in the world, there are no stone pictures to prove it.

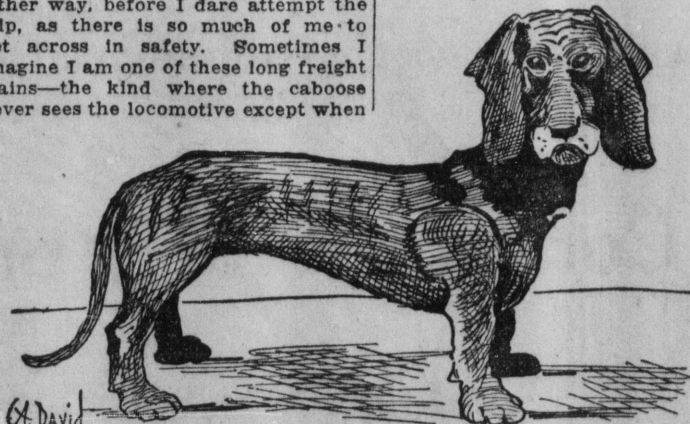

But it is awful to be as ugly as I am, and have people making all kinds of slighting remarks every time I happen to show myself on the street. No matter how briskly I try to walk, my hind legs lose step with the front ones, and act as if they belonged to another dog, as they follow along in the distance. No matter how friendly I may wag my tail, it is too far away to be noticed by the one whose hand I am licking. I always have an absent sort of a feeling, as if part of me was getting lost or misplaced. When people look at me they always smile, even if they don't make some funny remark. Some of them say I ought to have an extra pair of legs to hold up the middle part of my body—and to tell the truth, I do sag awfully, right after a hearty meal. Some of them try stepping on my tail to see how long it takes the sensation of pain to get to my brain. When I get up and start across the street, I have to wait until there is not a motor-truck in sight either way, before I dare attempt the trip, as there is so much of me to get across in safety. Sometimes I imagine I am one of these long freight trains—the kind where the cabooses never sees the locomotive except when going round a curve.

A funny thing happened the other day, when I was walking slowly around a tree, after a while I caught up with a tail, and I could tell from the smell it was a dog's tail, and naturally supposed it was the property of some strange dog. So to teach him some manners I gave it a quick bite, and it was not until I gave a yelp of pain, that I realized it was my own.

It is all right to look funny when one wants to look funny, like a clown for instance, but to look funny all the time whether one wants to or not, gets on one's nerves, and there is nothing really funny about it. I can roll my eyes in the most sentimental way, and look as dignified as you please, and all I get is a smile, and no one takes me seriously, not even other dogs. A big Dane will pass me with a lofty sniff, without deigning to glance in my direction, and a collie pays no more attention to me than he would to a section of sewer-pipe. And that's the way with all of them, they just ignore my existence. But some people like me, and some of them go so far as to say that I am beautiful, but somehow I can't keep from wondering if their sight is all right?

I am sure I'm as good looking as a bull-dog, but that's not saying much, as I suppose they are about the ugliest things in the world.

I Am Sure I'm As Good Looking As A Bull-Dog

SLEEPY TIME

SLEEPY Time on mother's knee
Seems the nicest time to me
So when my play and work are done

To mother's side I quickly run.

And cuddle in her comfy lap
All ready for a quiet nap.
And mother sings sweet songs to me
As I curl up upon her knee.

And in a voice so soft and low
Repeats the nursery rhymes I know,
But every one seems fresh and new
When mother says them just for YOU.

And so I rest while mother sings
Of birds and woods and pretty things—

No wonder that I like to climb
On mother's knee at Sleepy Time.

Solution to Cut-Out Puzzle

WHAT will please mother or sis-ter more than a chest or box in which she can keep her various choice articles of feminine adornment free from dust and insect pests. Such a box is shown in the sketch; it may be made of Beaver Board or similar material by a boy of the upper grades of school or even by the lady herself if she has the usual amount of gumption which modern girls are supposed to possess. The board must first be cut and care used that each piece is perfectly square or there will be trouble in making things come out right. The top, the largest piece is 16 1/4" x 20 3/4", the bottom, 16" x 30", the back and front each 16 1/4" high and 80" long, while the ends are 16 1/4" high and 15 1/4" wide. These dimensions are based upon the assumption that the board of which the box is made is 1/4" thick. If it is of a different thickness the 15 1/4" dimension of the ends must be changed accordingly, though the variation will be of slight importance as the paneling strips will be cut to fit in any event. If the box is made 48" long it may be used for a skirt box.

Cut the pieces 16 1/4" long, which equals the height of the ends and nail the ends to them securely; be sure that the ends of the boards are flush with the edges of pieces e. Use a 1 1/4" large headed nail, a 3 penny common nail will do, and glue all joints wherever it is possible as they will be much stronger. Glue and nail the front and back boards to their places after which cut pieces c between the pieces e flush with the top of the board all round the top and bottom of the inside of the box; glue, and fasten these pieces with 3/4" trunk nails which are clinched on the inside by holding a hammer against their ends as they are driven through piece c. It may be necessary to bore holes with an awl if the wood is likely to split. Nail through the bottom into the pieces e around the back, front and two ends with 3 penny fine nails though if 3 penny common nails will not split c they should be used. Nail piece c2 around the bottom of the box with 1 1/4" No. 15 brads driven into c1 of the bottom edge of the sides of the box, and trunk nails clinched for additional strength around the inside of the bottom. This completes the body of the box and the next step is to fasten piece a around the bottom of the outside, nailing into c1 with 1 1/4" No. 16 brads, and into c2 with 1 1/4" No. 16 brads; drive them a little slanting-ly as they will hold better. C3 should next be fastened around the top edge; note that it is placed about 7-16" below the top edge of the board. These pieces may be cut square, though if mitered at the corners they will make a better job, but this should not be attempted by one who is not sure he can work accurately with a miter box. Pieces b and d should be fastened in place as indicated so the paneling will show the same upon both sides of the corner. Pieces d3 in the center must have corresponding pieces on the inside in order to give a good nailing. The bottom should be panelled the same way inside and out to prevent sagging when the chest is filled.

Nail piece d1 on the under side of the top, flush with the edge; then piece b1 around the top, nailing through into d1. B1 must project 1/4" all around to receive piece d2 which forms the lip at f and makes the box dust and insect proof; this should be next fastened on, nailing both ways into d1, and through the top of b1 into d2. Note that d2 sets back 1/4" from the edge of b1. Cut in pieces d4 for the paneling of the top, both inside and outside, nailing from the top through the inside for strength. The top may be hinged by building out the back piece c3 of the box at the place where the hinges are to be located to make it flush with d2 of the back edge of the top, and a flap hinge or butt fastened on with screws.

The nails should be sunk below the surface with a nailset; smooth and sandpaper the chest to make it ready for finishing. The chest may be stained and the nail holes puttied and given a coat of shellac and afterward rubbed down with fine sandpaper and waxed, or it may be painted white with two or three coats of flat coat, the holes puttied after the first coat, and each coat rubbed down with 60 or finer sandpaper. It may then be varnished with white Damar or other colorless varnish, or with white enamel.

While the box will be light, it will be strong if good judgment and reasonable skill have been used in driving and clinching the nails so the wood will not be split. It will be amply efficient for the storing of light woollens and furs, or it will even be suitable for so sacred a purpose as a hope chest for the maiden who is preparing for the advent of Prince Charming.

QUALITY AND SERVICE

When C. S. Kelley leased the building at the corner of Third and Main streets, he announced that the plans for remodeling called for improvements that would make this corner one of the liveliest in the city. The building was formerly occupied by the Overland Santa Ana Company, with sales room facing Main street and garage and service station in rear.

Mr. Kelley's prediction has come true, for Third and Main, at the completion of the improvements immediately jumped into commercial prominence. Those occupying this building are Osborn & Collins, men's wear, Applebaum's Specialty Shop, women's wear, Santa Ana Drug Company, Fox's soda fountain and cigars, Wayne Goble, advertising and signs, D. A. Kelley and C. W. Holcomb, real estate. The formal opening of the building takes place Friday and Saturday.

Santa Ana's Newest Store for Women

Tomorrow and Saturday you are especially invited to visit us and view our most complete showing of Spring apparel. In preparation for these formal opening days, we bought merchandise that will have it's first showing—some fifty or sixty dresses, coats and blouses just received that are worthy of your attention. As usual, the prices are moderate—as always, every garment is imbued with style and quality.

New Spring Dresses $17.50 to $39.50

Canton Crepe, Taffeta, Crepe Knit, Roshanara are the materials of which the majority of these dresses are made, with such colors as Jade, Orchid, Henna, Apricot and Tangerine. Not only do the prettiness of the colorings give a desired youthfulness, but the clever styling of these new dresses will please the younger as well as the more mature women. That they are exceptional values will be demonstrated to you on inspection, in fact we believe they are unmatched in Santa Ana at the prices quoted.

Applebaum's Opening Special

Silk Hose 85c pair

Silk Hosiery in White, Black, Brown and Nude. Such well known brands as "Lock-side," Moss and "Anklefit." All sizes and the price is indicative of our moderate profit.

Mr. Man, We're Ready For You

With a complete line of Clothing, Furnishings and Hats

This new store is ushering in with Spring many attractive things in the way of Furnishings for men and young men. Many novel and worth-while ideas have been developed for this season's wear.

The best of everything is to be found in Suits, Hats, Shirts, Neckwear, Hosiery, Underwear, Pajamas, etc. In fact a complete line to outfit the man—both for work and dress.

We have just received another shipment of those Good Hats at $3.00 and $3.50. Others at $4.00 and $4.50.

But the best news about our entire display is the prices—decidedly lower than you expect them to be.

CHICAGO CUBS BUILDING FOR FUTURE BY GATHERING FLOCK OF YOUNGSTERS

Manager Killifer Has Big Problem In Lining Up Well Balanced Outfit; Arnold Stats, Former Angel, Sure of Place In Outfield

By MACOLM MacLEAN
(Written for the United Press)

Chicago's Cubs are not claiming any pennant this season. As a matter of fact they'll be well pleased if they finish within the first division. Unlike some clubs, notably the New York Giants, they are trying to add strength to the club with youngsters rather than veteran stars costing tens of thousands of dollars. They are building against the future, with real hopes of doing well in the present.

Their two big problems lie at second base and behind the plate. Terry played second last season and may have to do so again this season, but in the meantime he is being tried out at third. For second, Manager Killifer is trying out Barney Friberg, Kansas City, outfielder, who was used at second a while last year, and Joe Klugman, an experienced minor.

Catching, now that Killifer no longer can work as frequently as before, is a weighty matter. Bob O'Farrell is good and probably will do much of the work. But at least one more, better two, must be developed. Harnett and Wertz may do.

Much strength has been brought to the Cubs by Fielder Hack Miller, a terrific slugger from Oakland, and the speedy centerfielder, Arnold Stats of Los Angeles. He is a great runner and fielder and is improving as a hitter.

Plack, if he returns to the Cubs, as expected, seems the usual fixture in right field with Ray Grimes having the inside call on first base because he can hit. Charley Hollocher is sure of the shortstop job and Johnny Kelleher is doing nicely at third.

The club will have two experienced pitchers in Alexander and Martin. There are three good yearlings in Jones, Freeman and Cheever and five youngsters in Kaufman, Osborne, Aldridge, Keen and Stueland.

FRENCH SHIP FREED BY GREEK OFFICIALS

PARIS, March 23.—The Greek authorities have released the French merchant steamer St. Pierre, bound from Havre for Mersina, laden with automobiles and a general cargo, which was captured by the Greek cruiser Ajax it was announced here.

What Coast League Players Are Doing

BOYES SPRINGS, Cal., March 23.—The veterans of the Seals squad and the "kids," including recruits played a 4 to 4 tie at the main event of yesterday's practice. Lefty Mitchell pitched great ball for the kids.

MYRTLEDALE SPRINGS, Cal., March 23.—The Oaks will break camp Saturday and go home to Oakland, for a busy week preceding the opening of the season. Two games Sunday are scheduled—a morning game with the Tribune All-Stars and an afternoon game with the Post-Enquirer All-Stars. Tuesday the Oaks play the University of California.

STOCKTON, March 23.—Seattle won the last game of its series with the Colorado All-Stars here yesterday afternoon, 4 to 1. Henke, who pitched for Seattle, amazed spectators with his wide curves.

MODESTO, Cal., March 23.—The Merced Bears were easy victims of the Salt Lake Bees yesterday afternoon. It was an 8 to 0 shut out. Duffy Lewis and Paddy Siglin, of the Bees, are on the sick list.

AVALON, Santa Catalina Island, March 23.—The Chicago Cubs broke training camp here today, and prepared to move in to Los Angeles for a three game series with the Angels and Vernon Tigers. At the conclusion of the series they will work their way East via San Francisco.

ARE YOU WORRIED? CAN detectives help you? If so for confidential service call Nick Harris. Detectives. 230-31, Spurgeon Bldg., Santa Ana Office. Phone 1403.

Blaeholder Shows Well On Mound Against Fast Merced Ball Team

MODESTO, March 23.—Salt Lake had little trouble defeating Rube Gardner's Merced Bears here yesterday, the final score being 8 to 0. Bromley and Blaeholder allowed five hits during the nine innings, while King for Merced was found for fourteen hits. Paul Strand secured four of these while Stillman, Light and Escalon recruited three, two of which were home runs. Manager Lewis is still on the sick list.

Paddy Siglin, second baseman, is also on the sick list, having left here yesterday for Boys Springs, where he will undergo treatment for a sore. Chet Thomas, formerly a major leaguer, failed to reach an agreement with Manager Lewis and returned to his home in Los Angeles. Negotiations are under way for the purchase of Outfielders Justin Fitzgerald and Schick of San Francisco.

POLY TENNIS SQUAD DEFEATS FULLERTON

Poly racquet swingers yesterday afternoon took the second step toward the tennis championship of Orange county by defeating the Fullerton team in a fast series on the local courts. The score was 20 to 5.

Every match was hard fought, but the locals had the edge in all but one, losing the girl's first singles, when Eveline Biefield, of the visiting team, defeated Marjorie Rawlings, Santa Ana, in two sets, 8-6 and 6-2.

The longest struggle of the afternoon came in the boy's second singles, Merritt White, Santa Ana, defeating Wendell Irwin in the best two sets out of three. The scores were 6-4, 6-8 and 7-5.

John Cress, the new Poly student from San Pedro, played in yesterday's matches in the boy's first singles. Cress won the right to play in this position by defeating Merritt White, who had held this position in a challenge match.

Cress shoved the others down the line, putting Randolph Bell, late of the mixed doubles, into the bench warming class.

The players: Santa Ana—Boys, singles, John Cress; second singles, Merritt White; doubles, Earl Villard, Clifford Marston; mixed doubles, David Meyer, Persana Deimling; girl's, singles, Marjorie Rawlings; second singles, Vada Freeburg; doubles, Enid Twist, Marjorie Tubbs.

Fullerton—Boys, first singles, Percy Parker; second singles, Wendell Irwin; doubles, Theron Wilson, Charles Robinson; mixed doubles, Albert White, Miriam Davis; girl's first singles, Eveline Biefield; second singles, Jean McAllister; doubles, Reva Hawkins, Eleanor Warren.

PLAN TO IMPORT 2000 TONS SLAG IN 1922

ANNAPOLIS, Nova Scotia, March 23.—The use of commercial fertilizers in the Annapolis Valley promises to reach in 1922 the high record of last year, when importations of several thousands of tons were made from Baltimore and Belgium. It is understood that some 2,000 tons of slag will be imported from Belgium for this year's needs as well as about 2,000 tons of fertilizer and 1,000 tons of nitrate from Boston.

COURT KNOCKS OUT COMPENSATION TAX

SACRAMENTO, March 22.—Superior Judge C. O. Busiek sustained a demurrer to a suit brought in the name of the state against the Yosemite Lumber company to determine whether the legislature had the right to impose a tax for carrying on of vocational re-education or rehabilitation of disabled workmen and whether the state controller had the right to collect the tax.

As a result of the decision the state will be required to refund approximately $47,000 to various employers and also will be unable to collect approximately $100,000 now due, unless the state supreme court should reverse Judge Busiek's decision.

IMAN GIVES FISTIC FANS BIG SURPRISE

Local Boy In Draw With Kid Mexico But Looks Like Real Winner

MAIN EVENT—Jack Iman beat Kid Mexico.

SEMI WINDUP—Henry Gatten vs. Johnny Adams, draw.

PRELIMINARIES: Bud Garber knocked Charles Dean out in first.

Johnny O'Brien vs. Connie Hogan, draw.

Willey Jackson beat Billy Ross, four rounds.

Jack Iman pulled the biggest surprise in months when he conquered the veteran Kid Mexico in a terrific, goofy main event at Delhi last night. The only way to tell how it was done is to start at the beginning.

In the first round the men were even enough. In the second Jack rushed K. M. to the ropes, where they clinched. At the break Mex. dropped his hands and started walking around the ring shouting: "I'm not going to quit; I'm going on with the fight," etc. After several minutes delay, during which time Mex's glove was removed from his left hand for examination, the fight went on. The referee let the boys start at the beginning of the second round.

In the second round the men were pretty even but in the third Jack landed three right hooks to Mex's jaw and the Huntington Beach boy nearly fell but managed to grab Jack and hang on until his sight of Dizzyville had passed. Once more in the third K. M. was in deep water but again hung on and finished the round.

The fourth was even. To make things goofier Chick Brown, the referee, gave the decision as a draw. Nobody seemed to know just why.

In the semifinal Henry Gatten was lucky to get a draw with Johnny Adams. John had an annoying straight left that had Henry a mighty worried boy. The Los Angeles boy didn't uncork his right until the fourth and showed evidence of having just played with our Santa Ana boy for the first three stanzas.

Charles Dean did a Kellerman act in the first round of his bout with Bud Garber. Bud caught Dean with an awful left in about one minute, then tripped Charles, and in another half minute or so the local boy went down for the count.

It was a card that seldom comes to our city. The two preliminary bouts were whiz bangs.

About the only way to untangle the K. M.-Jack Iman mixup will be to re-match them. The Grand Canyon would be needed to seat the crowd that would gather to watch the return match.

SPORT GOSSIP

BOGALUSA, La.—Five home runs, two by Baker and one by Ruth, didn't stop the Yanks from losing to St. Paul, 7 to 6. Two of the Saints, Whalen and Gonzales, also hit four basers.

NEW YORK—"Beat Babe Herman and I accept," Johnny Kilbane wirelessly from mid-Atlantic in answer to the $50,000 offer of the Ring Sporting club for a Kilbane-Pepper Martin match.

NEW YORK—Morvich, wonder colt of 1921, will start in the Kentucky derby on May 13 instead of the Preakness classic the same day at Pimlico, according to owner Benjamin Block. The Preakness is worth more, but the "derby" has the prestige, he said.

SAN ANTONIO—Barnes and Benton, two rookie pitchers, hurled great ball and the Giants beat Indianapolis 9 to 3. Snyder hit a homer.

NEW YORK—Seventy-four court stars, including Frank Anderson, present indoor champion, Vincent Richards and Howard Voshell, are entered in the national indoor tennis championships, starting here Saturday.

The old timer who was used to blowing out the gas now has a son who steps on it.

POLY NINE TO MEET ORANGE IN LEAGUE CONTEST TOMORROW

Santa Ana is scheduled to invade Orange in the third game of the league series tomorrow.

Nothing has been heard from Orange since the beginning of the season, and the outcome of tomorrow's game is in the dark.

Coach H. Davis's charges have not been indulging in any practice quarrels, or if they have, the results haven't been made public, so that nothing to gauge the comparative speeds of the rivals can be set forth.

If, as in basketball, the lads prove to have a hard fighting team, with considerable ability, the affair should prove interesting.

Whittier is scheduled to come down to Anaheim for this week's tussle. Tustin explores the wilderness of San Juan Capistrano, while Fullerton goes to Huntington Beach. Garden Grove rests on a bye.

RUBBER CEMENT PROTECTOR By placing an old felt hat over the top of a gallon can of rubber cement, evaporation of the liquid will be prevented. Also it is possible to leave the brush in the can, where by it remains soft and pliable instead of hardening, as it does when it is removed.

Girls! Buttermilk Creates Beauty Overnight

The first application of Howard's Buttermilk Cream will astonish you. It creates beauty almost like magic, but the most wonderful thing about it is the fact that whilst it turns the dull and most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty and makes red or rough skin snowy white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use after application. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the least shininess or greasiness of the skin.

It is absolutely harmless and will neither produce nor stimulate the growth of hair. Within twenty-four hours this wonderful Cream will work a marvelous transformation.

Get a small quantity today at any good drug or toilet goods counter. The directions are simple and it costs so little that any girl or woman can afford it. In addition the manufacturers authorize every druggist to return the purchase money unless the first application shows noticeable improvement, so be sure to try it at our expense. Should you have any difficulty in obtaining the Cream, write to us locally and we will send a full sized package of both Cream and Soap for $1.00. In any case don't hesitate to send the (silver or stamps) for generous trial package and convince yourself of their merits. Howard Bros. Company, 24 Main St., San Francisco, Calif.

STORES IN NEW BUILDING PLAN BIG OPENING

The Charles Kelley building at the northwest corner of Third and Main streets was a scene of bustling activity today, as the proprietors and employees of the newly established stores prepared for the grand opening tomorrow.

Spacious, well lighted, attractively decorated, the stores are striking additions to the already extensive list in Santa Ana.

On the corner is the Santa Ana Drug company, owned by E. S. Roth. Roth plans several attractions tomorrow and Saturday, chief among which are the free gifts and the premiums with purchases. Boy Scouts especially are asked to be on hand to receive mirrors. Each lad presenting his membership card will be given a special mirror. Other free specialties, and premiums with purchases, large and small, are calculated to attract record crowds. M. W. Fox, formerly of the White Cross Drug company, has leased the soda fountain and will serve special lunches.

One door north of the corner in the group is Applebaum's Shoppe. David Applebaum, who is also proprietor of the Style Shoppe in Orange, was formerly connected with the Unique Cloak and Suit House in this city. He is convinced, he says, of the continued prosperity and growth of Santa Ana, and has long been looking for a suitable location for a place of business. He will carry a reasonably priced stock of up-to-the-minute women's apparel, with an aim to service.

Harry C. Osborne and Spencer S. Collins are the proprietors of the Osborne and Collins men's furnishing store. Osborne was formerly proprietor of the Toggery, while Collins was with the W. H. Huff company for seven years. Both men are familiar with the details of the men's furnishing business, and are making preparations for the opening tomorrow.

Wayne Goble, who has maintained offices for his advertising and publicity organization several doors north of the corner of Third and Main streets, has taken up quarters on the Third street side of the Kelley building, and plans the extension and enlargement of his business. He did the decorative work in the Santa Ana Drug store.

D. A. Casey and C. W. Holcombe have located real estate offices west of the Goble shop, and will be open for the first time tomorrow.

"LUCILLE" FAILS; BLAMES DRY LAW

NEW YORK, March 23.—Prohibition was blamed for the failure of Lady Duff Gordon, modiste, doing business under the name of Lucille, Ltd., one of the largest gown-making establishments in the world. An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed against the company, liabilities being placed at approximately $174,000 and assets at $75,000, but the figures, it was said, inadequately represented the failure.

Headquarters of Lucille, Ltd., are in Paris, with branches in London and New York. The bankruptcy proceedings involve the American company. The firm does a business here of more than $800,000 annually, one account alone running up to $75,000 a year.

Guy H. Tolman, manager, said business depression and frozen credits were in part responsible for the failure, but he ascribed prohibition as the chief cause. It was explained that men of means today are not liberal with their women folk, as they were before the dry days.

It was announced the receivership would not interfere with the company's business. Lady Duff Gordon made her home in New York during the war, but returned to Paris three years ago.

PRACTICAL NOTES ON S. S. LESSON

By CAL OGBURN

Lesson for March 26, Review.

For three months, and covering a period of approximately two and a half centuries, an endless procession of men and women, who lived almost three thousand years ago, have been passing in review. What they said and did has been thrown on the screen before us. We have seen war, drought, and famine. The triumphs of wrong, and the victories of right. The success of a wicked Jezebel, and the failure of a righteous Elijah, and vice versa. And from all that we have beheld we may have drawn incorrect conclusions, one of which probably is that disaster, suffering and sorrow stalked constantly through the kingdoms of Israel and Judah. Such a conclusion is wrong. There were but three years of drought and famine in Israel, and none in Judah, two hundred and fifty years. There were thousands and thousands of men during that time who, like Elisha, followed the quiet, uneventful life of the husbandman; hundreds who, as Amos, were keepers of flocks and herds; and a great number of people who, year in and year out, lived the routine, contented life of the Shunammite woman and her farmer-husband. It must have been so, or else the dense population of these two kingdoms would not have been fed and clothed. All of which is to say that the good predominated, as it always does, even in times of greatest disaster. What makes history—which is the record of the unusual—merely that the good is repelling the assaults of evil. There is smoke, noise and some confusion as the shot and shell of wrong strike—and rebound from—confusion as the shot and shell of wrong strike—and rebound from—the Gibraltar of right. It is this that is seen, heard and recorded, and we erroneously speak of it as "the history of such and such a period." Our own literature, and particularly our newspapers and histories, is filled with the accounts of war, vice, crime—SIN. Three thousand years hence people, reading what is printed and published today, perhaps may think that all we did was to sin!—Just as we think of Israel and Judah. Where one man is a bandit, embezzler, murderer, even now while a crime wave is sweeping over the land, there are tens of thousands who never entertain a criminal thought. Believe in the eternal well-meaning of most men, or else become a pessimist.

and for the latter there is not and never was any just reason. Where there was one Jezebel there were thousands of women ready to entertain in their homes the prophets of God, as did the widow of Zarephath and the woman of Shunam. It is so today. Where there is one "vamp" there is "an innumerable company" of women like our mothers, with character and conduct entirely above reproach. Even the men of Nineveh repented at the selfish, half-hearted preaching of Jonah. If "there is in all men a streak of red and one of blue and another of white—the red for courage, the blue for loyalty, and the white for purity and the right. Maybe Elijah did show the "streak of yellow" when he lay under the juniper bush and wished that he might die, but God recognized the red, white and blue in his character to the extent that he sent a fiery chariot drawn by horses of fire and gave the old prophet a ride heavenward when his work on earth was over! As you review the events of the quarter's lessons, do not fail to see that sin brought punishment, but more than this, note the fact that evil was the exception and not the rule. And as it was then, so also is it now.

LIQUORS FOUND IN CHANDELIER SPACE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—Removing the electric chandeliers of several staterooms on the shipping board passenger liner Creole State, customs inspectors yesterday reached into the space above the ceiling and drew out fifty-four bottles of whisky and gin. Smugglers, just before the steamer left the Orient for San Francisco, had removed several of the ornate lighting fixtures, placed the bottled liquor in the air space above the ceiling and then replaced the chandeliers.

PRESBYTERIANS PLAN SATURDAY SESSION

WESTMINSTER, March 23.—The regular annual congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church will be held Saturday at the church at 2 p. m.

Reports will be given from the different organizations of the church.

The stiffer place is being plowed preparatory to planting chili peppers.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Riggins of Huntington Beach, visited Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baxter from Thursday till Sunday, when, in company with Charles Parr and family, of Smeltzer, all three families went to Orange county park, starting about 11 o'clock and taking their lunch along.

F. J. Grandy attended the Michigan picnic at Los Angeles Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Craig and family and her brother, Rufus Edwards, visited Mrs. Craig's sister, Mrs. Albert Kettle, Sunday at Buena Park.

Mrs. H. B. Anderson spent several days in Los Angeles, returning Friday in company with Mrs. Mary Tilton, who remained till Sunday. Miss Laura Thompson of Pomona, spent most of the week caring for Virginia Anderson, who was threatened with pneumonia in connection with the influenza. She visited Mr. and Mrs. Herman Thompson Saturday and returned home Sunday afternoon.

Entertained at Dinner.
Mrs. Bowers of Long Beach, a friend of thirty years' standing, visited Friday with Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Linder. She accompanied her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowers, who have charge of the roller coaster at Long Beach. Miss Jessie Bowers was also a member of the party who were dinner guests of the Linders.

Chester Hemstreet, who has been at the Community hospital, is back at the Reuben Edwards ranch, but still under a physician's care and it will be some time before he will be able to work, it is said.

Mrs. S. Dickey received word of the birth of a granddaughter Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Dickey of Van Nuys, are the happy parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stoves and Miss Opal Stoves spent Monday afternoon in Long Beach. On their return Miss Opal went to Orange, where she is employed during the week.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Violett, of Garden Grove, were supper guests Saturday evening of Mrs. Addie Blakey and Miss Leora Blakey.

Mrs. J. J. Stoves received a letter recently from Miss Marie Ameson, of Turlock, who, with her parents and family were former residents of this place. The letter stated they were all recovering from severe attacks of influenza. Miss Marie is taking a business course.

Mrs. Sanders and son of this place, were guests Sunday evening at the Blakey home.

Mrs. Phil McClintock and Miss Leora Blakey spent Friday in Santa Ana and Garden Grove.

Mrs. W. T. Vardle and sister, Miss A. Gilbert, who spent two weeks in Los Angeles, returned Friday with their brother, A. W. Gilbert, who remained until Tuesday.

A new windmill has been put up on the lot owned by W. H. Bentley and electric lights have been installed in the house, which was moved forward to the boulevard. Also both houses owned by A. D. Baker have been wired for electricity and are already rented.

MINING ENGINEER OF NOTE DIES IN DENVER

DENVER, March 23.—Philip Argall, mining engineer and international authority on metallurgy, died here after a short illness. He was the founder of the Argall basic treatment for ores and was widely known in mining circles in this country and in Europe as an expert on cyanidation. Argall was 68 years old. He was the author of numerous scientific books and papers.

COULD NOT TURN IN BED

Operation Avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Dayton, Ohio.—"I had such pains that I had to be turned in bed every time I wished to move. They said an operation was necessary. My mother would keep saying: 'Why don't you take Pinkham's, Henrietta?' and I'd say, 'Oh, mamma, it won't help me, I've tried too much.' One day she said, 'Let me get you one bottle of each kind. You won't be out very much if it don't help you. I don't know if you will believe me or not, but I only took two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and one of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine when I began to get relief and I am regular ever since without a pain or a headache. When I lie down I can get up without help and without pain. I can't begin to tell you how I feel and look. I have begun to gain in weight and look more like I ought to. I think every day of ways I have been helped. Any one who does not believe me can write to me and I will tell them what shape I was in. I am ready to do anything I can to help your medicine.'—Mrs. HENRIETTA MILLER, 137 Sprague St., Dayton, Ohio.

YORBA LINDA

YORBA LINDA, March 23.—Miss Ruth McDavid announced her engagement to Donald Munger, Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McDavid, Yorba Linda. The home was beautifully decorated in spring flowers and shades of pastel were used. Mrs. McDavid and an aunt from Los Angeles, Mrs. E. T. Thompson, acted as hostesses in receiving the guests.

A delectable luncheon was served at individual tables. During the luncheon a card was handed each guest with dates on them of the different holidays and days of importance in the American history, but one date, April 26, was the date that could not be guessed by any of the guests. They were not kept in suspense long, however, as they adjourned to the dining-room for dessert, and there a lovely card was laid before them on the dining-table.

A huge pink crepe rose formed the centerpiece, streamers running from it to each place where a dainty hand-painted flower pot of sweet peas, a place card of a little lady and favors of small corsages of pink roses, and when each one pulled the streamer from the rose she found a dainty hand-painted card with the puzzling date April 26, and a "rush" was made for the little hostess, Miss Ruth.

After the luncheon "500" was played. The groom-to-be, Donald Munger, is a well-known Fullerton man, a graduate of F. U. H. S. and Junior college and an athletic star. The romance dates from sophomore days at the college where they met. All of their friends are looking forward to the wedding with a great deal of enthusiasm and anticipating another pretty affair as Miss McDavid has originality. She is an unusually attractive blonde. Both she and Munger are popular in the younger set in the northern end of the county, especially in Fullerton, where they graduated from college in the same class.

DISTRICT ELDER TO CONDUCT MEETINGS

GARDEN GROVE, March 23.—District Elder David McLeod is to conduct the fourth quarterly meeting in the Free Methodist church this week evening, March 26, at 7 o'clock.

The Rev. F. A. Ames, pastor of the church, cordially invites all persons interested to the services.

Miss Carrie C. Kimball entertained friends and neighbors at a Saint Patrick's Day party last Friday evening. The Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Ames motored to Upland last Friday to visit their son, Howard who is attending Chaffee high school and Stephen Walker, father of Mrs. Ames. They came home by way of Los Angeles and attended the annual declamatory contest in the Los Angeles Free Methodist seminary where Faber, their son, was one of the contestants. The orations were given in such a manner as to reflect great credit to the school and were enjoyed by a crowded house, they report.

Wayne Holt went to Los Angeles Wednesday to bring back Mrs. William Noble and daughter, Mrs. Allen Wheeler, of New York. Mrs. Noble is a sister of C. S. Holt and Mrs. J. N. DeVaul, of this place and of Mrs. J. W. Johnson in Santa Ana, all of whom she will visit. She has come to California for the benefit of her health.

Mrs. G. F. Crane and daughter Mrs. Fred Mott, returned home from the North Monday evening. They have been visiting Mrs. Crane's daughter Mrs. Louis Covell, at San Luis Obispo for the last ten days. They motored there and back with Mr. Covell's brother of Santa Ana, who made a business trip and visit to his parents at Los Gatos.

Ed Dozier and family moved into their beautiful new bungalow, 1-3-4 miles northwest of town, Monday. Mrs. Dozier, whose health is gradually improving, is expected home from the Los Angeles Methodist hospital on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Monte Preston of Downey visited Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Holt Sunday.

Mrs. K. S. Hendricks spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith near Anaheim.

Mrs. C. S. Holt and daughter, Miss Lova, spent Saturday in Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Morris of Havana, Ill., who have been spending the winter in Los Angeles, arrived Tuesday for a several days' visit with Mrs. K. S. Hendricks, before returning to their home.

H. E. Hand and two children returned to Reddy Sunday after a week's visit with relatives here. Mrs. C. S. Holt and Nelson Cook, of Long Beach, were callers in town Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Summers, of Colton, spent Sunday at the C. B. Henry home.

AIRPLANE TO SCOUT FOR SEAL PATCHES

ST. JOHNS, Newfoundland, March 22.—The Martinside aeroplane, with which it was planned to make an aerial mail trip to Halifax, N. S., will be used this spring in connection with the seal hunt. The plane will act as a scout, reporting the locations of the seal patches to the steamers engaged in the hunt. The machine will also be used to communicate with, and carry provisions to, ships caught in the ice blockade off this port.

WILL OPPOSE PAROLE.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—Members of the San Francisco board of trade announced today, following a meeting, that they would hereafter oppose probation for persons convicted of fraud or conspiracy in connection with business failures. This policy, the business men said, would be backed up by a campaign to stamp out dishonest practices.

SCHOOL CHILDREN TO SEE FEATURE FILM

WINTERSBURG and SMELTZER, March 23.—Prof. R. M. Horrell, principal of the Oceanview school, plans to screen one of Charles Ray's pictures, "The Pinch Hitter," at the school auditorium tomorrow evening for the benefit of the children.

All are welcome and where four or more from one family attend, only the admission price for two will be charged. Otherwise a very small admission will be asked—just enough to finance the expenses incurred.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Ray Moore entertained at dinner on Sunday the former's parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moore, and Norval Moore, of Santa Ana. Alice Willmarth was a guest for the day also of Muriel Moore and remained over night.

Mrs. Gillespie spent several days the past week at the Anaheim Sanatorium, where she underwent a minor operation. Mrs. Gillespie is now at home and doing splendidly. The children remained with friends at Whittier during their mother's absence.

Elizabeth Willmarth is among the latest victims of mumps. Mrs. A. H. Moore visited one day the past week her daughter, Mrs. Collins, and little new granddaughter of Los Angeles. Baby has been named Lillian Jean, the first name being in honor of Mrs. Moore.

Honor School Team.
Miss Viola McMillan, Charles Bickmore and Albert Maddux were among the young men of the Huntington Beach high school of this community who attended a delightful party tendered in honor of the first boys' basketball team. Maddux and Bickmore are both team members.

A doctor was called to Wintersburg Tuesday morning to attend a Mexican, who, besides being an influenza victim, was suffering from a broken shoulder. The cause for this latter was not learned.

Mrs. W. W. Blaylock has not been so well the past week and is still confined to the bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Moore and family were Sunday dinner guests at Costa Mesa of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pratt, former Wintersburg residents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fox entertained on Sunday their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Daniels, and two children, of Pomona, who motored down for the day.

Jim Maddux came Saturday evening from Anaheim and remained over night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Maddux. On Sunday Maddux returned home accompanied by his wife who has cared for her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Clemens and sister, Mrs. Sim Ten Eyck, and family through their illness due to influenza. All members with the exception of Bobby Ten Eyck, the youngest boy of the family, were up and gradually recovering before Mrs. Maddux left for home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moore and children enjoyed a visit Sunday at Balboa with Prof. and Mrs. H. O. Edgison and family.

COMIC FILM CURES CHILD IN HOSPITAL

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., March 23.—Comedy motion pictures are credited with effecting the recovery of Katherine Hartwell, 7 years old, of Pleasantville, an inmate of the Children's Seashore house in Chelsea.

The child had become weak and emaciated; she had scarcely slept for a month and was reduced to a state of helplessness where she could only with difficulty make any voluntary motion. Today she is reported on the rapid road to completely regaining her health.

Henry Wink of London, England, a wealthy picture magnate, who believes a happy frame of mind does much to help along patients and plans the inauguration of a hospital service, staged a show on that evening at the institution. He passed the cot of the little girl on his way to the assembly room.

"Too bad this little one can't go, too," commented Miss Eva Harrison, the child's nurse.

"Why can't she go?" the visitor inquired.

"Little Katherine hasn't much longer to live; the doctors don't expect her to be with us more than a few hours," was the answer.

Just then Katherine's eyes opened and a most wistful smile lighted up her countenance. Mr. Wink's heart was touched.

"Well, if this poor little creature has only a few hours to live, what harm can be done if we try to brighten one of them?" he asked. She was made as comfortable as possible in the auditorium. There was a comic picture on the screen as the child opened her eyes at the suggestion of the nurse. At first Katherine watched the film listlessly. Then she began to take a closer interest. That night she slept, the first full night's slumber in a month. On the following day she could move. Now they look for her recovery.

INDIA WARFARE NEAR, SAYS GANDHI'S AGENT

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Actual fighting between the nationalists of India and British troops is only a matter of days now, following the sentence to six years' imprisonment of M. K. Gandhi, leader of the "peaceful Indian" revolution. Saldandra Ghose, Gandhi's representative here, said last night. The nation-wide strike against the British government is the next step in the plan of the nonco-operationists, Ghose declared.

COSTA MESA

COSTA MESA, March 23.—The Ever-Ready Sunday school class met at Harold Long's home recently. The time was spent in pleasant conversation and work on the class book. Mrs. Long served refreshments much to the delight of those present, who were Mrs. Ed Bennett, teacher of the class, Harold Long, Roy King and Donald Stearns.

"If any other young boys would join us in our good times socially and in Sunday school we would be delighted," so says the class.

TeWinkle and Smith of the general store at Costa Mesa have sold out to H. H. Bjorgo and W. S. Barnard.

Mr. and Mrs. Bjorgo and family are living in Santa Ana for the present, but expect to live in Costa Mesa some time in the future. W. S. Barnard has rented the William's house on Fairview avenue, but his family is still in the East, but expects to arrive in about six weeks.

Miss Alice King, one of the pleasant clerks at Spicer's store at Santa Ana has been quite indisposed for several days. At the present she is feeling somewhat improved.

Mrs. D. H. Reid and son, Clarence, motored to Los Angeles on Monday to look after some business affairs. Miss Mary L. Kerfoot, whose birthday was on Tuesday, was pleasantly surprised in the evening when a number of friends arrived to celebrate the occasion. All this had been planned by Mrs. Bailey, with whom Miss Kerfoot is making her home while she is principal of the Costa Mesa school. Many pleasant games and music were the diversion of the evening. After being treated to delightful refreshments the guests were loathe to depart.

FULLERTON

FULLERTON, March 23.—There will be a meeting of interest, Friday, at the Odd Fellows' hall, at 2 o'clock, of the economic section of the Fullerton Ebell club. There is an invitation extended to every lady of the community to attend at this time as the discussion will interest Fullerton as a whole, it is said. There will be several demonstrations during the afternoon.

Mrs. Lida Beatty, of Kansas City, who is spending the winter at Santa Monica, was the weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Moore. Sunday they motored to Riverside and spent a delightful day at the Greenwood Mission Inn.

Mrs. O. S. Compton and Mrs. E. J. Doherty spent Monday in Monrovia visiting with Mr. and Mrs. White, friends of both ladies.

Celebrate Birthday.
A merry picnic party was the feature of the jolly crowd that helped George Sherwood celebrate his birthday Sunday. They motored to Corona, where they enjoyed a delicious picnic lunch, prepared for the occasion, in the canyon beyond Corona.

Those enjoying the day were: Mr. and Mrs. Otto Des Granges, Mr. and Mrs. H. Brower, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. George Amerige, Mr. and Mrs. Doherty, of Los Angeles, Mrs. George Sherwood and the guest of honor, George Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Davis, house guests at the William R. Davis home, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Abner Davis at their home in Orange.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Shuelke spent Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Barkman, West Whittier avenue. The evening was spent playing "500."

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Launer and family spent Monday in Los Angeles. Launer was attending to some business and Mrs. Launer and little ones spent the day with Mrs. Launer's mother, Mrs. Convas.

CHURCH FOLK TO MEET IN SAN JOSE

SAN JOSE, March 23.—More than 200 Sunday school workers from the evangelical churches in the San Jose district are expected to attend the twenty-ninth annual Sunday school convention to be held in the First Presbyterian church.

Dr. Charles D. Bulla, of Nashville, Tenn., well-known churchman, will address the gathering in the evening.

For Fire Insurance see Mrs. Ben E. Turner, 104 W. 4th.

MOTHER!

Clean Child's Bowels with "California Fig Syrup"

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, give a teaspoonful to cleanse the liver and bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation poison, sour bile and waste out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup. adv

BY FRANCES DEANER
Will Rogers' titles in "Doubling for Romeo" are worth the price of admittance at the West End. If you have made up your mind not to laugh—don't go there this week.

Daringly different is "Doubling for Romeo" in which Will Rogers appears as Sam Cody the sleepest cowpuncher in Arizona—at the beginning.

The picture pokes fun at movie cowpunchers, movie villains, movie vamps, movie directors and movie studios, but the satire is not obvious. It flows beneath the current of as lively a Western romance as ever flashed before a camera. Among the characters Rogers assumes are these:

An Arizona cowpuncher dressed in a theatrical costume's conception of Western clothing, trying to land a job as a cowboy in the movies so he can learn to "make love like Douglas Fairbanks;" as a "double" for a movie villain, getting a fearful drubbing in which he is smeared all over the face.

When the director informs him the scene has to be taken all over—"for Europe"—he resigns; as a movie lover in a college suit paying desperate advances to a beautiful vamp reclining on a pile of cushions; as a "double" for the hero when he lassos the villain, instead of the villain's horse—that's his undoing and he is fired without further ado. Then when he returns to the old home town in Arizona to be turned down again by the romantic daughter of the ranch owner, because he is as dull and uncouth as ever, despite his movie experience.

Until he can make love like Romeo, the girl will have nothing to do with Sam, so she sallies forth to learn the Romeo-system of love-making. The village parson lends him a copy of Shakespeare. After reading the romance of "Romeo and Juliet," he falls asleep and has a dream in which he is Romeo and the girl is Juliet.

Then follows a side-splitting travesty on the immortal love story with Sam swaggering through fencing scenes and social affairs, like a broncho-busting buckaroo, in doublet and hose.

Rogers kids the motion pictures and a number of his movie friends throughout the run of the film—good advertising for them. And, altogether, to sum it up—

"Doubling for Romeo" is a brilliant satire, a thrilling romance, a delicious comedy packed into six reels of delightful entertainment.

There are good things on the bill, too—a travelogue, the old family photograph album and the radio concert.

RAIDERS SEE STILL AT WORK, IS CLAIM

Although pursuing bootleggers and capturing blind pigs in his capacity as a peace officer for sixteen years, Sheriff C. E. Jackson had never seen a still in action, he said today, until he entered the home of Paul Montijo, at Cypress, yesterday.

Montijo, who is now awaiting trial March 30 at 10 a. m. before Justice J. S. Howard, of Anaheim, on a charge of violating the liquor laws, was busily engaged, Jackson declared, in turning out a "batch" of home brew when the sheriff and Deputy Roy Ballard entered.

According to Jackson, he not only caught Montijo "red handed" but he also got the home brew almost red hot. At least it was still warm, Jackson said, as it poured into a container out of a metal condenser extending from the boiling kettle on the stove.

S. A. MISSIONARY FOLK DEPLORE LAX SABBATH

The Federated Missionary societies of Santa Ana are firmly opposed to the desecration of the Sabbath, and are unitedly in favor of only those political candidates as are classified as "dry."

These facts were brought to light in the final sessions of the annual meeting held in the First Christian church yesterday, when resolutions to that effect were passed.

Regarding the Sabbath day, it was agreed that a "renewed" call for prayer be issued; that the tendency to allow Sunday to become a holiday is an encroachment on home life and a desecration of the Sabbath.

A second resolution called upon the members to "support for election only those candidates who are avowedly 'dry,' and to aid in every way the passage of the Wright act."

Following the report of the nominating committee, the report was accepted, and the following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. F. T. Porter, First Christian church; vice-president, Mrs. C. F. Crose, First Congregational; secretary, Mrs. O. S. Catland, First Baptist; treasurer, Mrs. G. M. Wright, Spurgeon Memorial; secretary of literature, Miss Blanche Collings, First Methodist Episcopal; press reporter, Mrs. T. L. Warren, United Presbyterian.

Another resolution, "extended thanks to visiting speakers, to Miss Hutchinson, secretary of the Missionary Educational department, who allowed the use of a large collection of books, and to the members of the First Christian church for their courteous hospitality."

Think of "EXCELSIOR" when you want milk, cream and ice cream.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown m. th"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 30c.

SECRET OF CHURCH'S SUCCESS DEPENDS ON RIGHT PRAYER, CLAIM

"The secret of the success or failure of any church is indicated by the place the trousers need patching, on the knees or on the seat."

This is what Dr. Ralph Atkinson, evangelist conducting services at the United Presbyterian church here, told the congregation last night, following a statement of some of the reasons he assigned for "The Failure of the Church," the topic he discussed.

He said the reasons for failure were many, but that all came back to no praying, wrong kind of praying, misdirected praying, unbelieving praying and selfish praying.

"An encouraging crowd was present to hear the clear, convincing messages of the evangelist," said the Rev. J. G. Kennedy, pastor of the church, today.

Tonight Dr. Atkinson will speak on "What Methodist Episcopalists believe and United Presbyterians practice."

ALLEGED FAKE 'DRY' AGENT BOND OVER

Mrs. Winnifred Roberts, formerly of Balboa and now a resident of Compton, did not appear yesterday as a witness in Los Angeles in the preliminary examination of W. S. Jeffreys and A. W. Metz, who are in federal custody on charges of having represented themselves as federal officers while conducting "dry" raids in Santa Ana, Fullerton, Long Beach, Santa Monica and Venice.

The examination was completed yesterday and Mrs. Roberts will not be called unless it should be decided later to take up investigation of Jeffreys' actions while he was in Santa Ana, it was stated.

Testimony before United States Commissioner Long yesterday concerned activities of the detectives at Santa Monica, following which the charges against Jeffreys so far as concerned that city and all charges against Metz were dismissed. Jeffreys was held on charges developing from his activities at Long Beach and Fullerton.

BUILDING PERMITS SHOW STEADY GAIN

The records of City Building Inspector W. S. Decker showed the entry of $3,900 in permits up to 1 o'clock today.

Decker stated that in all probability $6,000 more would be issued before 3 o'clock. The total for the month up to 1 p. m. was $237,880, which, allowing for the $6,000 that Decker was certain of receiving, would reach $239,880. The total since January 1, without the extra $6,000, was $692,601.

SEE INDIAN OPERA AS GREAT SUCCESS

With the ticket sale progressing rapidly, and the work of the cast proceeding well, "The Legend of Nacoochee," Indian operetta to be presented by the combined glee clubs of the high school in the auditorium tomorrow evening, today promised to be one of the big events of the calendar at the school.

Miss Lena Shepard has been directing the singers, assisted by Joseph Jackson. Under their direction the members of the cast have been rehearsing faithfully until the dress rehearsals gave indication of the finished performance which would greet the parents and friends of the pupils tomorrow evening.

Tickets are on sale at the Santa Ana Book store, where reservations may be made.

TWO INJURED AS CAR, MOTORCYCLE COLLIDE

Wilford Hayes, of Garden Grove, and Arthur Nittel, 226 Rose street, Anaheim, who were riding Hayes's motorcycle, were both slightly hurt when they crashed into an automobile driven by B. R. Ford at Main and Seventeenth Sts., according to a report on file at police headquarters today. According to Ford, who made the report, the motorcycle was traveling at a rate of between 35 and 40 miles an hour at the time of the collision, which took place yesterday. Both riders were able to proceed on their way after the accident.

KEEP WATCH FOR TWO ALLEGED HOLDUP MEN

A look-out kept by the local authorities for two alleged holdup men, driving a Hudson car with a nickle Packard radiator, and traveling heavily armed, had gone unrewarded today.

Word was received here last night that the holdup had taken place at Redondo and the perpetrators were believed coming toward Santa Ana.

Highways through this city were watched closely but no sign of the gunmen was observed. It was then believed that they had taken another route. Details of the holdup were not received here.

SHOCK FROM ELECTRIC GARMENT KILLS WOMAN

DENVER, March 23.—Mrs. Elizabeth Tipton, 68, was found dead in her bed by her son-in-law, Lewis Solomon, according to Deputy Coroner George Bostwick. She had received a fatal shock from an electric garment found on her body. The current was still on when the woman was found, Bostwick said.

INVEST WITH SECURITY

Many men are today asking themselves how they can make money as other men are doing. Look about you and you will see that some of the wealthiest men of this community are HEAVY INVESTORS IN GOOD REAL ESTATE. When money is invested in lots such as those in the McFadden Tract, it will bring returns greater than any person can offer safely. The city will grow and as it grows property values must increase. Buy while lots can be had cheaply.

LOTS $950 up

Prices include sidewalks, curbs, grading and oiling of streets and mains for gas, water and sewers. Lots are 50 by 160 feet on 70 and 80 foot streets. The tract is well laid out and because of the boulevard that passes it, is convenient to the center of the city with no danger of muddy or torn up roads in the winter. Investigate for yourself.

LIBERAL TERMS

One-fourth down and nothing more for an entire year will buy you a lot. This is an unexcelled opportunity for investment. Within the year it is highly probable that property in the McFadden addition will be worth considerable more than now. The city is growing West and South in the direction of the tract and it is certain that development will be rapid during the next few months. BUY A LOT WITH A FUTURE.

The house across the way

Beautifully attractive, isn't it? And yet no need for you to be envious. Beauty in a house is largely a matter of good painting. A coat of B-H Paint will work wonders in the appearance of your home, and in addition will add years to its life.

Bass-Hueter is synonymous with the highest achievement in the manufacture of paints, varnishes, enamels—in fact preparations for every painting purpose—inside the house or out.

Let us know your painting problems, and we will gladly solve them for you.

Our Home Beautiful Department will gladly send you valuable and helpful suggestions. Write us.

Real Estate Acreage a Specialty

Costa Mesa, Calif.

March 21, 1922.
Yes, you will have lots of opportunity to buy land at a low price. It has been going for years. It is doubtful whether you will have one such opportunity again. This is a rare chance. It is a three-acre tract we have listed, lying along the side of the 10th street, on the left hand side of the boulevard, as you go south from the Costa Mesa store, about 100 yards from the store to the oil well, just west of the boulevard after you cross the bridge going to Newport. That is now flowing oil from the pressure of gas below. I was to see this oil well flowing today, and I went. It is a fine sight. We are offering the above mentioned three-acre for the low sum of $1500 per acre, $4500 per acre. Are you going to let this golden opportunity slip by as you go by? This is a rare chance, where near as good? It is an old saying and a true one, that it is a wise man who knows his opportunity when he sees them. Be quick if you want this snap.

QUITS JOB TO STUDY SINGING IN EUROPE

SANTA ANA, March 23.—A Stefano

Agency dispatch from Durazzo states that an extraordinary tribunal convened at Shlak, northeast of Durazzo, and sentenced to death by hanging Capt. Barabragian, captain of the gendarmier, for complicity

in the recent uprising in Albania, and that the sentence was carried out immediately.

The tribunal ruled that the city of Durazzo must pay 100,000 francs damages and Shlak 60,000 francs in connection with a revolt. A proclamation was issued threatening the death penalty for anyone taking up arms in Albania.

When Passing the Car Ahead.

The blowing of a horn by an automobile overtaking another car is a signal for the car ahead to pull over to the right to allow the car in rear to pass to the left. Cars should not attempt to pass at an intersection, sharp turn, curve or when approaching the crest of a hill.

Hunter's backers hope that he will come back to San Francisco as a great singer, to add one more name to the long list of artists who have come from around the Golden Gate.

The deckhand explained this by a shrug of his shoulders and the comment: "It takes money to study music."

Today's Best Investment

(This ad is changed daily. Watch it.)

We are telling you about Caribbea here as it is something you ought to know about and investigate. This land of wonderful sunshine and winter crops is 80 miles from Los Angeles, 50 from Santa Ana and 38 from San Diego. It has the mildest climate in the entire United States and will produce 2 crops yearly, often netting the planter $1000 per acre. Winter lettuce, peas, potatoes, peppers, etc., bring big returns. We figure this YOUR opportunity—$550 per acre with 10% cash and 10% a year. After your initial payment the land should pay for itself.

BUXTON & STEVER, 310 N. Main St. Phone 111-R

Two Opportunities to -- --

OWN YOUR OWN HOME—A peach of a 5 room bungalow nearly completed. Large cheerful living room, tan brick fire place with book cases built in on either side. Room finished in selected blue gum wood. Lovely dining room with built-in buffet, has French doors leading to cement porch with pergola. 3 large light sleeping rooms with connecting bath off hall. Kitchen with every built-in convenience. Breakfast room (not a nook). Garage. Heavy oak floors throughout. Every detail of finish, lighting, arrangement, etc., has been carefully studied by owner who planned and built this beautiful picture for a permanent home. POSITIVELY NOT BUILT TO SELL. Circumstances make a sacrifice necessary. Situated in Poly High district. If the littlest little home in Santa Ana will interest you let us call and take you to see this one. Price $1000. Terms moderate terms.

EVENING SALUTATION

Know then this truth, (enough for man to know.)
Virtue alone is happiness below.—Pope.

THE LIVE GHOST DISCLOSED

That famous ghost at Antigonish, Nova Scotia, turns out to be, after all, a live one. It is the verdict of Dr. Walter F. Prince, the psychological researcher, who is considered a pretty competent observer, that the spook is no other than Mary Ellen Macdonald, an adopted daughter and member of the haunted household.

Mary Ellen, it appears, is subject to "dream states." That is, she has tendencies to what people used to call "sleep-walking," and what the psychologists usually call "somnambulism." She may have braided the horses' tails, set fire to the house, slapped sleeping people, etc., while in such a state, and might have no waking memory of having done so.

Or Mary Ellen may be what the alienists call a "hysteric." Many a ghost, trailed to its lair as this Nova Scotia apparition has been, has proved to be just such a case of hysteria or somnambulism on the part of some unsuspected Mary Ellen around the house.

What made Mary Ellen somnambulist or hysterical is another problem.

The obvious point is that, in any case of "ghost" manifestations, the first thing to do is to look for some possible human agency.

REHABILITATION SUCCESSES

The special attention brought to rehabilitation work by war needs has done much to extend this activity. A number of states are doing important work in reclaiming to usefulness persons injured or incapacitated through industrial or other accident or illness.

In Missouri this work is in charge of the "Department of Public Schools. Divisions of industrial rehabilitation have been established in St. Louis and Kansas City. In a recent interview the head of this work cited a number of instances of restoration to independence and consequent self-respect and happiness.

One case is that of a young woman, 21 years old, who had both arms torn off six years ago in an accident in a paper bag factory. She received a small compensation for her injury and tried to live at home. Recently she grew restless and asked for assistance in becoming a wage earner. Through the rehabilitation service she is studying in a business college. She has artificial arms and can use a typewriter, writing 30 words a minute. She has an agreeable personality and pleasant voice and is rapidly becoming equipped for several varieties of work.

Congress, in 1921, passed an industrial rehabilitation act providing for a grant of federal funds for states for this work. Wherever it has been tried thoroughly, with intelligence and sympathy, rehabilitation has been found remarkably successful. In case after case, the injured person is able, after special training, to earn more in his new line of work than before his accident.

There is every justification for extending rehabilitation not only in the great industrial centers, but wherever men and women are idle and unhappy because of physical handicaps. Training which will fit them for new occupations is a matter of general economy as well as common humanity.

MEASURING BY TENS

A bill now pending in the Senate providing for the adoption of the metric system by the United States. That system has been recognized for many years as legal, but has never been officially accepted by the government for its own use, not to mention its being made obligatory for private use. The movement is actively supported by the American Metric Association, which is planning to give lectures on the subject in various cities.

The country will probably come to it sooner or later. It is a part of the general progress of civilization, substituting, as it does, a simple and scientific system of measures and weights for our present crude, accidental and complex system. The curious thing is that the American people, in spite of having the example always before their eyes of the decimal money system, have been so slow to extend the same idea to other forms of measurement.

The metric system makes linear measure, square measure, liquid measure, and weights of all sorts, just as simple as "10 cents make one dime and 10 dimes make one dollar." All the time-honored foolishness of jills, pints, quarts, gallons, pecks, barrels, hogheads, of inches, feet, yards, rods and miles, of drams, ounces, pounds and tons, etc., is done away with. Every kind of measure is easily changeable into any other kind.

Nearly all the civilized nations except America and the British Empire already use this system. Most American tourists are surprised when they reach Europe to find on the continent kilograms instead of pounds and liters instead of quarts and meters instead of miles, but they soon get used to it. They would soon get used to it here, too. And there would be big trade advantages in making the thing universal.

CHRISTIAN RAILROADING

Says Homer G. Denison, a business statistician: "If Christ were elected president of one of our big railroads and the twelve Apostles were the board of directors, it would surprise most people how little change in the management would take place."

Frankly, Mr. Denison, it is hard to imagine. A reader may thumb his New Testament a long time without finding any evidence that either Christ or His Disciples were interested in any kind of money-making business, or in any business other than that of improving human souls. Indeed, the founders of the Christian faith sometimes seem surprisingly disinterested in economics.

Nevertheless there is some basis for Mr. Denison's bold characterization of Jesus as "the world's greatest economist," because "he advanced the principle that honesty is not only the best policy but it is the only policy by which business can make any permanent success." Texts covering this statement may be hard to lay one's finger on, but the principle is plain enough in both New Testament and Old Testament teaching.

It is fortunate, as this business authority suggests, that American men of affairs more and more are realizing the truth of this principle, in transportation, manufacture and trade, and it is this fact which gives America business supremacy."

EVERY CITIZEN'S AFFAIR

The Bureau of Municipal Research of Toronto has for its slogan "Citizen control of the citizen's business." Recognizing that such control is difficult under all conditions and impossible under ignorance of public affairs, the Bureau directors have undertaken to keep citizens informed by means of frequent, prompt and accurate bulletins concerning the affairs of the city.

The present series of bulletins is titled "Biographies of Individual Schools." One at a time local school buildings are discussed, beginning with the date of erection and proceeding to list faults and deficiencies as well as improvements already made and further improvements greatly needed.

It is found that in Toronto, as in many cities of the United States, school construction to date is far from perfect. In Toronto, however, it is frankly declared to be "unfortunate that the State, while obliging children to attend school, should at the same time fail to afford them healthful conditions in school."

Perhaps such faults and others on this side of the Canadian border would be changed more rapidly if the Toronto slogan were generally adopted and backed up by "frequent, prompt and accurate" statements of existing conditions.

Ratification of the Treaties

Imperial Valley Press
When the disarmament conference was called it was hailed with confidence and hope. When the conference adjourned it was heralded as a success. All participants in the most notable gathering agreed that it had composed many national differences and that it had provided for the future relations of the great powers of the world so there was likely to be little conflict or difference of opinion between them. The work of the conference is now before the United States senate for approval and ratification. If the treaties embodied in the work of the conference are not calculated to do the things the members of the conference contemplated they should do then the intelligence of the members may well be imagined. If these treaties do really mean what they say they should be ratified.

Senator Johnson of California has joined with the opponents of the treaty and is doing his utmost to defeat them and to thus bring the work of the conference to naught. On the other hand Senator Shortridge is standing for ratification and for the binding effect of the agreements entered into by the statesmen who composed the conference. Thus the voice of California is to be a divided voice and its influence in this great work is to be neutral.

The Press has the utmost respect for Senator Johnson, both as to his patriotism and his perspicacity. It is no more than he, wishes this government to enter into relationships with foreign governments that will weaken the national fiber or impair the nation's independence. If he honestly feels that the treaties negotiated for the purpose of settling differences between this country and Japan, between Japan and China, between other nations of the world, and for repealing the Anglo-Japanese pact are hostile to the best interests of the United States it is his privilege to govern himself accordingly. The Press believes, however, that our interests have been safeguarded by the able men who represented us in the conference. It has faith in the intelligence of Hughes, Underwood, Lodge and Root. It does not believe these men are any less patriotic or any less intelligent than Senator Johnson. They tell us that under the treaties the United States will yield none of its sovereignty, that there will be no entanglements and no super-government.

Firmly believing that there can be no progress toward universal peace and the abrogation of war and its indescribable horrors until the nations of the world begin to think and negotiate in terms of peace instead of war, the Press can do nothing less than subscribe to the method agreed upon to that end. It is ready to take its chances with the treaty advocates. There must be a start made along other than sanguinary lines. The rule of reason should be substituted for the rule of war. If these treaties are not approved then we must resume the mad scramble to build a larger and more formidable navy; we must begin to build up a great army; we must provide for our coast defenses. We must not reduce our military establishments but we must expand our army until it is equal to any that can be placed in the field. We must not think for a moment of cutting down taxes, but we must grudge our teeth and vote for larger and larger burdens to be imposed upon us. That is the old way. That is the alternative. Surely the proposed naval holiday, reduction of armaments and armies, and the peaceful relations established between the powers cannot be worse than the old way, even if it all fails. But there is every reason to believe that failure will not be the end of it all. There is every reason to believe that the sentiment of the public in California, in the United States, and perhaps in the world, is in favor of the proposed new way. Therefore let us substitute diplomacy for warfare.

Full Day's Work at 81

San Bernardino Telegram
Associate Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes of the United States Supreme Court celebrated his eighty-first birthday last week by doing a full day's work on the bench, bringing to it the same unremitting endeavor, faithful industry and clear judgment that has raised him to high rank among the jurists whose labors have contributed to the splendid traditions of American jurisprudence.

"Old men for counsel and young men for war" is an aphorism that obtains more credence than it deserves when the career of such as Justice Holmes is considered. Every one of his years since youth has been devoted to usefulness and the proper living that has all but defied the encroachments of advancing age. The traditional three score years and ten have long since passed, yet this bright ornament to the American bench proceeds with his work as efficiently as half a century ago.

Justice Holmes' career is worthy of note for better reasons than the eminence he has attained. It holds lessons for those of us who never expect to be called upon to judge anything more momentous than the weather or the quality of the domestic cuisine.

England's Film Censorship

Stockton Record
England knows what she doesn't want in moving pictures and the censors have named sixty-seven kinds of scenes that cannot appear in English theaters. Here are a few of them:

Making young girls drunk; brutality and torture to women; excessive drunkenness; nude figures; indecent dancing; improper exhibition of feminine undecorated; women fighting with knives; the practice of the American "third degree"; disparagement of the institution of marriage; prolonged and harrowing death-bed scenes; bedroom and bathroom scenes of an equivocal character.

American pictures which supply the bulk of the popular British demand are barred unless the pictures are revamped and one fancies there is not so much back talk about it as there is in the United States. There should not be much difference of opinion about whether scenes like the above are proper for a theater patronized by families. One of the who claim that they "give the people what they want" and that "pictures will be better when the public demand is better pictures" is that children form quite a large portion of their audience. Whether they know or care, pictures are playing a part, and a not insignificant part, in shaping the tastes and characters of the thousands of boys and girls who frequent movie theaters. A responsibility is on those theater managers in part to give those school children something of what they ought to have and reputable theater directors recognize this and do so.

It may as well be admitted that what is not good enough for England is not fit for the United States.

THE OPEN MIND

What a thrill there is in a new idea! How it runs through the brain, stirring up the normal cells there, and getting them to scurry in all directions, waking each up to welcome the newcomer.

Ideas come oftenest to the open mind. Because they are welcomed there.

If you let the world into your mind, you will get a better understanding of people each day. The narrow mind shuts out people and consideration of them.

Who does not admire the man who welcomes to his home every shade of opinion and every sort of decent thinking folks—the man with an open mind, always ready to learn and to grow.

The open mind is an unselfish mind. It sees so much of error and back-stepping in so many, that it has a clearer vision for that which is hopeful and uplifting.

The traveler, the actor, the lawyer, the newspaper reporter, are a few of those who come in close contact with all types of human beings. Therefore you find them with minds that are not sealed to facts and truth.

There is nothing more inspiring than to walk into people's minds—and find a welcome there!

I recently had the privilege of talking to a very great man whom I had admired for many years but whom I had never met before. I found him extremely simple and democratic in his manner—pleasant, courteous, and open minded. I could understand in my own mind the reason for his marvelous success—for he is one of the most noted publishers in the world.

The people who do the most good in this world are those who see all sides and who have tolerant spirits.

The open mind lets God in, as well as any who may want to find peace, comfort, or stimulation.

And the open mind lets in more sunshine, more fragrance, and more happiness, than any other kind of a mind.

There is one prayer I would like to have answered—my prayer for an open mind!

CLAY HILLS

It is easy to mold the yielding clay
And many shapes grow into beauty
Under the facile hand.
But forms of clay are lightly broken;
They will lie shattered and forgotten in a dingy corner.

But underneath the slipping clay
Is rock.
I would rather work in stubborn rock
All the years of my life
And make one strong thing
And set in a high clean place
To recall the granite strength of my desire.

OUR NATURAL GAS

Of natural gas we burn usefully in a year fully 800,000,000 cubic feet—equivalent to the leading value of 40,000,000 tons of coal, and something like 8,000,000 families are directly benefited by it in cooking, heating and lighting. But the most significant aspect of this matter is that approximately two-thirds of the gas is used industrially. The history of our treatment of natural gas is a record of wanton waste. Just think of it. In the course of one month gas was allowed to escape unchecked from a well yielding this while 1,000,000,000 cubic feet of the commodity; and in two months four wells scattered broadcast a total of more than 5,000,000,000 cubic feet of gas! This dissipation of potential heat corresponded to 250,000 tons of coal, or enough to supply 50,000 households for a year. By recourse to moderate expense for proper casing at our gasoline wells an enormous conservation of this fuel might be effected.—Scientific American.

A BOOST FOR COSTA MESA

COSTA MESA, Cal., March 21, '22
Editor Register: May I have a little space in your columns to call special attention to the growing popularity and value of Costa Mesa lots and lands, in order that those who may wish to do so may secure homes here before prices advance.

Real estate on this beautiful mesa will certainly go higher in price, and we are glad to know that so many of our Santa Ana and Orange county people are beginning to get very much interested, and are waiting to buy, or trade Santa Ana property for real estate here, where we have such a fine lot of rich and beautiful lands for sale.

I thought when I bought a five-acre tract five years ago that perhaps land would double in price here in the next ten years; to my surprise it has more than doubled in price in five years. There is a reason. It is our good prospect for one of the best land-locked harbors along the Pacific coast, which is now being developed.

Just think what a wonderful bay we have running north from Newport and Balboa, some eight miles, half way to Santa Ana, a mile and a half wide, with bluffs on either side of the bay from forty to fifty feet high; a bay that our government is in great need of, to anchor its fleet where it will be safe from storm.

Our government knows all about this wonderful natural harbor; it also knows that it will be a comparatively easy matter to go on with the good work that has already been started by the people of Orange county, and complete it.

Every indication now points to the government's taking this matter in hand within the next two or three years, possibly soon, with the view of completing it, because it is so badly needed, now that a good share of government's fleet is already located on the coast, without sufficient land-locked harbor protection.

Bear Stories for Bedtime

CHAPTER 301

A TRAP SET FOR BILLY BEAR

By Harvey Elliott

By the next morning the circus man's pal had gotten over his scare and decided not to go back to town. The circus man persuaded him to stay at least another day.

Finally his pal said: "Well, I'll stay if you will give up that crazy idea of catching that Bear at his own house."

"Don't worry about that, pal," said the circus man. "I gave that all up yesterday while I was lying under that armful of brush. We'll have to trap him somewhere else, I see that."

"Then the pal had a bright idea. 'I'll tell you,' he said. 'That Bear had such a gay time in this tent yesterday he is sure to come back. If we could fix up some kind of a scheme to get him while he is nosing around our grub-box I'd have a clearer conscience in taking him prisoner.'

"That's great, old pal, what a head you've got on you! I'm glad you didn't go home," said the circus man. Then the two men got their heads together to work out a plan to catch Billy Bear when he came back to their tent. They had brought a cage to the woods with them to put the Bear in when they caught him. They carried this into the tent and put it where the circus man's bed was the day before. They had to plan some way to get Billy into the cage and then get the door shut before he could get out.

"The night before, they had to go to the nearest little town for stuff to eat. They got among other things another bag of wienies. And this is the trap they set to catch Billy Bear. They opened the cage door and fixed it so it would latch when it would fly shut. Then they tied a string to the door, ran the string up over the top of the cage and dropped it inside at the back end of the cage. Then they tied a nice juicy wienie to the end of the string. A few more they scattered around on the inside, for bait.

Now the trap is all set and the men and dogs went off on a hunt so as to leave everything quiet around the circus man's tent.

HAVE YOU THE COURAGE? To meet failure and obstacles on every hand?

To meet your enemies with love for hate, good for evil?

To move steadily towards your goal with a serene mind when you know that others ridicule and consider you a failure?

To remain in obscurity to support a parent, or a helpless sister or brother, when you have the consciousness of the ability to do things?

To bear the blame which belongs to another because you do not want to bring pain to others?

To speak the truth when a lie would help you out of a difficulty?

To forego extravagance so that you may provide for the future welfare of those dependent upon you?—Tid-Bits, London.

When our government commences on this Newport harbor, to complete it, real estate all over this Newport Mesa and this Costa Mesa district will double in value in a very short time. Any sane man knows this all the stages ever written about it, but the fact, why not buy now while prices are reasonably low?

FULFILLING PROPHECY

Editor Register: In the Register of March 16, there appeared two articles, one from the Pasadena Star News, the other from the New York Sun, both telling of the great project under way to harness the Jordan river with one of the great hydro-electric plants of the world to give light and power to Palestine. The New York Sun commenting on this project says: "It means great wealth, great comfort for the masses of the people and a forward step in the world's progress.... and as such it should be hailed as something worth more to the world than all the legends, all the stages ever written about it, but the poet and the preacher refuse to be comforted."

Says the Pasadena Star News: "It is indeed, to be believed that the Savior would look down from on high with favor upon a modern scheme for redeeming the Holy Land from desert wastefulness and turning the hills and vales and shores which He trod while on earth into a fruitful region, where sustenance for multitudes could be produced."

Yes, and we will add that, the Savior not only looks upon this with favor, but that He is actually bringing this about, as was foretold by the mouths of all the holy prophets since the world began, and ere long the holy prophets, and all the holy men of old, will return to Palestine, as the prophets have declared. God is even now preparing Palestine for their return.
